2012 Show Pics

Friday, May 4, 2012, was a very busy one for all the Lionhead breeders as they filled the aisles in Columbus, Ohio, to coop their rabbits. The Show Committee arrived early in the day to be sure all was ready.

Every National Show has its own story and each exhibitor has their own. Behind the scenes situations are handled and later we can laugh at them. At the time, it really isn't so funny.

The Quilt

Peg Smith and Mary Weber with the quilt before the lucky ticket is drawn.

Peg Smith, Weeping Pines Rabbitry, in Michigan, worked two years quilting a beautiful gift that she gifted to the NALRC. With drawings done by her friend and fellow Lionhead breeder, Mary Weber, of Weber's Rabbitry, Peg created this fabulous masterpiece that was a raffle drawing at the 2012 Lionhead Nationals in Columbus, Ohio. Each square was sewn by hand. Tickets were sold for $5.00 each for a chance to win a one of kind quilt.

Thank you, Peg, for this donation and thank you, Mary, for your drawings and to Robin Butcher for your encouragement for two years while the quilt was in the making!

And the Winner Is...

Live Auction!

A huge crowd gathered as 16 Lionheads were auctioned off after the show. Terry Jo Pyper acted as our auctioneer, with the help of writer, Robyn Butcher. Grace Gamber presented each animal as it was auctioned! This is the biggest fundraiser NALRC conducts and this year the club netted $1.280!

2012 Youth Contest Winners

Editor Note: Being absent from the National Show has made this issue extremely tedious to put in place. It appears that no photos of our youth at the Friday night contest were taken by anyone and no digital images of the photo contest entries were saved. I have contacted all youth on the exhibitor list and attempted to get photos. This page is all that was submitted. Five NALRC youth entered the photo contest this year in two different age divisions—12 and under and 13-18 years. Not all photos have been submitted. Twelve youth competed in the Judging Contest, but I have been unable to acquire the results for this contest..
