£10 per person which includes guided tour of museum & gardens
Orchard Side house, which from 1768 to 1786 was the home of William Cowper, renowned 18th century poet. Walk back in time through rooms featuring numerous personal artefacts and belongings. Discover William's comic sense of humour, the highs and lows in his life and his love of gardening and animals – especially his pet hares. Discover how his friend John Newton's life and personal experience inspired him to write the world's most famous hymn 'Amazing Grace' here in Olney. Find out about his time as a slave ship captain, as a captive himself; how he became curate of the parish church, his involvement in the abolition of slavery and his spiritual influence on William Wilberforce.
