NOONGAR TRAIL TOODYAY

The trail experience will take you to museums and on-country including old walk tracks

1. VISITOR CENTRE
   Welcome to Country wall mural
2. CONNORS MILL MUSEUM
   Learn about local flora, ancient firestick farming, karlerl (campsite), Noongar yorga (women) making the first flour, and view a grinding dish artefact
3. TOWN (NEAR CHURCH)
   Explore the Noongar six bonar (seasons) and how Noongar moort (families) lived in harmony with nature
4. DUIDGEE PARK
   Learn about waterways knowledge and the Wagyl (spirit snake) journey through Toodyay valley
5. BOYAGERRING BROOK
   Learn about food sourcing, food gathering, tools, trade, and ancient practices, and how moort (families) followed the six season. A special bush location learning space
6. BURIAL GROUNDS
   A non-traditional Aboriginal burial ground (early 20th century) highlighting beliefs, rituals and protocols
7. NEWCASTLE GAOL MUSEUM
   Gnulla Karnany Waangkiny - Our Truth Telling. Noongar voice re-claimed through highlighting Noongar traditional life pre colonisation and the dark history post colonisation. Learn about Aboriginal engagement in the shearing and agriculture industries
8. PELHAM RESERVE
   View a modified (scar) tree, learn about camp life responsibilities, shelters and more. All can be viewed mid way down and near the base of Pelham Reserve
9. PELHAM LOOKOUT
   While overlooking country, discover the night sky, birds, totems, and rocky outcrops, along with the deep spiritual connections woven into culture. An artwork here depicts traditional life
10. GUGULJA (AVON RIVER)
    Follow the Guguija along the Noongar Trail and Bilya Track where you will view native trees information and identify food resources from the bush and waterways
11. GNILGIL (REDBANK POOL)
    Continue along the track to Redbank Pool - where the Gnulla Moort (Our Family) installation highlights how Noongar people went about their daily activities 200 years ago

The Noongar Trail project is managed by the Noongar Kaartdijin Aboriginal Corporation (NKAC) ensuring cultural integrity, and supported through the Shire of Toodyay reconciliation plan.

The overall walk distance is approximately 9 kms. This includes out and back along the river to Redbank Pool (#11). You can drive to or get close to most locations on the Noongar Trail. Follow the 'dark blue' pointers. Enjoy.

The Noongar trail is suitable for families with children. No bushwalking experience required. The trail has both soft sand and compacted surface, gentle hill sections and occasional steps. For your bushwalking safety stay on track and take water with you.
In some sections the Noongar Trail follows both the Bilya and Pelham tracks.
Noongar Trail brochures are available at the Toodyay Visitor Centre.
