Where in the World...

Did you know every 7 years, the Eiffel tower gets repainted? Since its construction in 1889, the Eiffel Tower has been given a fresh coat of paint 19 times, an impressive feat given it takes 60 tons of coating to freshen up the famous monument. The Eiffel Tower was originally a deep red, chosen in an attempt to combat rust, before being re-painted ochere in 1892. It has gone through shades of yellow and yellow brown. As work begins on the tower this year it has been suggested the color may return to a bolder red.

How's it Possible...

In 1938, Ruth Wakefield was making Chocolate Butter Drop Do Cookies, a popular old colonial recipe. Unfortunately, Ruth found she had no more baker's chocolate, so she chopped up a block of Nestle semi-sweet chocolate given to her by Andrew Nestle. She expected the chocolate to melt and disperse through the cookie dough. Instead, it held its shape and gave us the Chocolate Chip Cookie we know today.

When Did That Happen...

The 1875 Kentucky Derby was the first ever running of the Kentucky Derby. The race took place on May 17, 1875. It was 1.5 mile race. The traditional distance of 1.25 miles was not established until 1896. The Derby is also referred to as 'The Run for the Roses' because the winner is awarded a blanket sewn with over 400 roses.

1. What comes down but never goes up?
2. What is at the end of a rainbow?
3 . In a one-story pink house, there was a pink person, a pink cat, a pink fish, a pink computer, a pink chair, a pink telephone, a pink shower-everything was pink! What color were the stairs?

That's Incredible!

In December 2016 Nike Inc annouced they were putting on their own marathon called Breaking Two, with three distance runners participating. The goal was to have one of the participants run the marathon in under two hours. To break the two-hour barrier, a pace of 4:34.5 per mile was required. On May 6, 2017 an unoffical world record was set by Eilud Kipchoge, who ran the marathon in two hours and twenty five seconds. Although not counted offically as a world record, it is the fastest time to date.

That's Trendy!

To say sequins and sparkles will be a big deal next summer is an understatement. In every fashion capital, glitter prevailed, starting with Tom Ford and Marc Jacobs right through to Gucci, Dior and Chanel. Style yours with a sweatshirt to give them daytime longevity.
