with Dr. Todd Still

DAY 1, MON, MAY 24 DEPART USA
Today we depart from the USA on our overnight flight to London. (meals aloft)

DAY 2, TUE, MAY 25 ARRIVE LONDON
Down through the years, from a small Roman settlement housed within stout fortifications, London has steadily grown to become one of the world's greatest capital cities. Upon arrival this morning we are met at the airport by our guide and coach. We drive into the city and visit Wesley's Chapel, known the world over as the "Cathedral of World Methodism" and one of London's undiscovered jewels, and The Leysian Mission. Then just opposite the Chapel, we visit Bunhill Fields, the "outcast's" cemetery, reserved for those who refused to compromise their convictions and step in line with the established Church of England. Consequently, it has become a cemetery filled with some of the most famous names in Christendom, many whose preaching and writing have influenced generations since for good. Among notables buried here: Isaac Watts, Susanna Wesley, John Bunyan, William Blake, Daniel DeFoe and John Rippon. Bunhill Fields was also the main burial ground for Quakers in the London area until 1857. After our time here, we transfer to the DoubleTree by Hilton London Hyde Park for check-in. Dinner is included at a local restaurant this evening. (B aloft, D)

DAY 3, WED, MAY 26 LONDON
This morning we see sites such as Marble Arch, Mayfair, Piccadilly, the Houses of Parliament and Big Ben, Buckingham Palace and Hyde Park. We visit famed Westminster Abbey, home to many coronations and royal weddings. Next we visit St. Paul's Cathedral. Its dome - the world's third largest - can be seen from many an angle in other parts of the city. The cathedral has been the site of many famous state occasions, including the funeral of Winston Churchill in 1965 and the wedding of the Prince and Princess of Wales in 1981. We continue to Hampton Court Palace and experience the public dramas and private lives of Henry VIII, his wives and children in the world of the Tudor court. It was here, shortly after the Tudor period came to an end, that King James commissioned the translation of the Bible that eventually became known as the King James Version. We return to central London for dinner, and then we visit Metropolitan Tabernacle, also known as Spurgeon's Tabernacle, and attend an evening Bible study. Founded in 1650, it was pastored by C.H. Spurgeon from 1854-1892 and remains an active congregation to this day. (B,D)

Here we visit The New Room, the oldest Methodist Chapel in the world (originally built in 1739) and the cradle of the early Methodist movement. Today it is composed of 28 colleges, including Regents Park College, a Baptist institution which has a museum of William Carey mementos. This area was often visited by C. S. Lewis and he taught here for a time. We begin our touring of Oxford with a visit to Bodleian Library - the main research library of the University of Oxford, and one of the oldest libraries in Europe. The library contains over 12 million items and is the second-largest library in Britain after the British Library. Following our visit we continue to Christ Church College - a constituent college of the University of Oxford in England. After lunch at a local restaurant, we enjoy a special highlight of our touring day - a private guided tour of "The Kilns," C. S. Lewis' former home which now hosts a Christian study center. This evening we attend Evensong at Christ Church. Afterwards we continue to Mercure Eastgate Hotel for check-in, with dinner on your own this evening. (B,L)

We proceed to the Clayton Hotel Cambridge for dinner and overnight. (B,D)

DAY 8, MON, MAY 31 CAMBRIDGE/ELY/ EPWORTH/YORK
This morning we visit Great St. Mary's Church before we transfer to Ely to tour its cathedral, one of the loveliest in England with its displays of stained glass and impressive architecture. We also tour the 15th-century home of John Knox, leader of the Scottish Reformation and founder of the Presbyterian Church, where he lived for a short time before dying here in 1572. The remainder of the day is at leisure with dinner on your own this evening. (B)

Today we drive north from Edinburgh to the Royal Burgh of St. Andrews. Here we have a guided tour to explore the city's many attractions.
