J. Dolan Byrnes

This has been one of the saddest weeks of my and others' lives, with the news that our dear, loving, wonderful friend Bronwyn Rucker left our world on Monday night. Those of us who knew her, and most of us did, knew her to be kind, generous, supportive, and so full of life. She encouraged others to show their talents and abilities and she selflessly provided platforms for them to do so. I was a recipient of that love and generosity and my moments with her are some of my most cherished memories. I have seldom in my life been this heartbroken and I know that others share this feeling. She touched so many lives that there are literally little shrines to her in the venues she once frequented. I saw one today in Ty's and I've heard that there are others. There is so much that's wonderful to say about our experiences with Bronwyn.

Shawn Fox
So sad to hear, our dear Bronwyn Rucker has passed away.
Such a truly wonderful woman, she will be dearly missed.

J. Dolan Byrnes
The world lost a true light.
Thanks Fox for posting such a lovely picture. It truly captures who she was.

Bill Sattan
She was one of the kindest persons I've ever known. I will miss her dearly.

Jeremy M Smith
Oh wow, I feel like I just saw her a week ago. This is so sad.

Patrick Butler
I'm so so saddened to hear this. A rare Greenwich Village jewel gone.

So sorry to hear about the wonderful Bronwyn Rucker has left us.
The piano bars of NYC will never be the same. Bronwyn was one of a kind, filled with love, compassion, fearless abandon and a wonderful warmth.
Rest in Peace, Bronwyn. I'll always think of you when I go where I "can forget all my troubles, forget all my cares"....

Michael Beau
Drew Wutke did a beautiful tribute to Bronwyn Rucker tonight at Marie's Crisis 💔
Bronwyn will live in our hearts forever. Rest in eternal peace sweet angel 🕊️

Ray Valentin
Bronwyn Rucker
My favorite.

Brice Corder
A beautiful tribute. It's so hard not to be there with the Maries Family.
I'm so Honored to have worked, sang and performed along side this beautiful human, I know she will be joining my mom, and the Maries in the heavens. 😥

Alex Parziale
My deepest condolences.

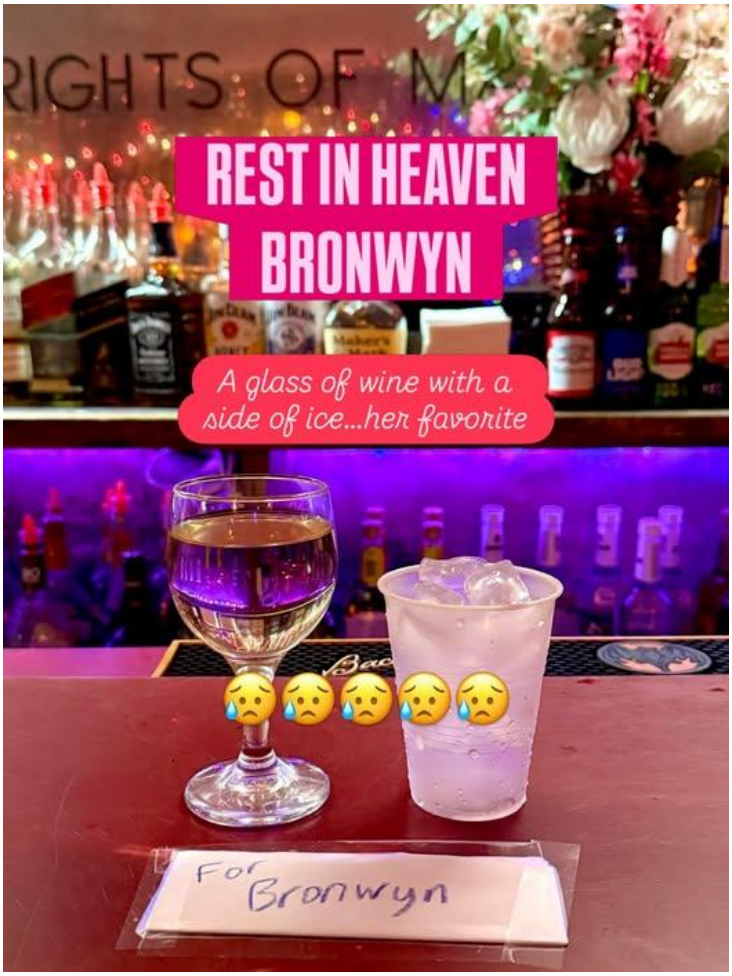
Debbie Smith
I went to high school and college with her. Sad to hear this.

Johnsen Carew Kerri
Oh my god! I'm so sorry.

Aimee Sanders
She's in my thoughts and prayers.

Eric R. Best
My condolences.

Richard J. Marks
For Bronwyn...



Dick Zigun
Rest in peace dear Bronwyn. Way too soon. Condolences to Rick and family.

Paul Martin Kovic
Bronwyn Rucker you were one of a kind and an everlasting delight.
You will be missed but there are many old friends waiting for you at that cabaret in the sky. What a scene that will be.

Jym Benzing
RIP Brownyn. You certainly made an impact on us all.
You will be missed. Love and condolences to your loved ones and the Marie's Crisis extended family.

Ritt Henn
Bronwyn was a true artist and it was fun to get into the creative sandbox with her.

Jessica Deiro Berryessa

Rest In Peace my dear friend... I will miss you!

All the world's a stage, and all the men and women are merely players.

Cheryl Bulbach

Her holiday shows were raucous, happy events.

And it was clear how beloved she was by her audience.

The world is a little less bright, now that she has left it.

James Ament
Sorry for your loss.

Theresa Eidt Wibbs
So sorry for your loss Jess, sounds like a woman who left her mark on this world.

Terence Scott
All the world's a stage and we are merely players.

Kenney M. Green
Sigh
Very sad to hear of the passing of our dear beloved Bronwyn Rucker.
From her birthday cabaret... I'm genuinely heartbroken.

John Bronston
It was a delight to play for her, she always kept me on my toes.
Truly a piano bar institution has left us... thanks for the innumerable delights Bronwyn.

Kimlee Hicks
And Bronwyn worked with hospice patients.
I always thought "what a lovely person to see you out".
She will be missed.
Kind soul.

Andrew Lustbader
OMG, I love her!
My fave was when she did the grandmother's song from BILLY ELLIOT.

Meredith Petry White
She was the silliest, most creative, kindest soul there ever was.
I haven't seen her perform in years so thank you for sharing this lovely video of her.
Of course my favorite she did was Drowsy Chaperone.

Robert A. Sherrill
I spent many an early evening bellied up to the bar at Marie's with her talking shop.
A kind and extraordinarily warm human. Thanks for letting us know.

Susan Kirshenbaum

Matthew Rosenstein
Oh no! I am so sorry to hear this. She was such a delightful, joyful woman. May she rest in peace.

Jennifer Pace
Beautiful. May her memory always be for a blessing.

Roberta Lipp
She radiated warmth and talent.

Stephaun DePaul
This makes my heart hurt. Thank you for posting.

Martin Maruschak
She was so nice whenever we've crossed paths.

Jym Benzing
Ugh. So sorry to hear, thanks for letting us know. Condolences to the Marie's Crisis extended family.

Lisa Dailey
I'm shocked and saddened.

Laura Kroh
Oh no! What a gift it was to watch her perform.

Clare Cooper
I can't believe it! A sad loss of a wonderfully unique person.

Casey Paradies
She was always such a sweet soul and so fun to talk to.

Brice Corder
This hurts a lot. Sending love.

Barbara Porteus

RIP dear Bronwyn. You were a force to be reckoned with here on earth.
I'm sure you're raising some cain up there!!! You will be so missed down here.

Michael Beau

Thanks for sharing this beautiful moment.

Duncan Pflaster

Awww nooo, what a special lady she was.

Rick Peets

What a wonderful spirit. This makes me sad.

Darin Anquoe

So sad. What a wonderful, beautiful spirit. RIP Bronwyn.

Just hearing of A major Loss in the Community & neighborhood
- HK - A Massive/ Huge presence at Don't Tell Mama Cabaret/piano Bar...
Marie's Crisis, etc. Bronwyn Rucker has shockingly left us.
I first met Bronwyn @ DTM's 30+ yrs ago... when I rented a shady SRO Apt/ room above DTM. I Loved her instantly!
Such an Amazing, Sweethearted, Loving, Funny, Talented Women....
I absolutely Loved going to see her shows on a regular & enjoying times with her after the shows.
She was one who fought an Awesome battle for so many years!
She gave me strength in my own journey/ treatments/ struggles...
An Amazing performer/ Idol to so many of us in the HK neighborhood... for decades.
Bron- You will be dearly missed!😢🎶💔🎤🥂

Chauncey Dandridge
Rest well Bronwyn Rucker
you were such a wonderful soul, passionate artist and activist and the way your eyes lit up as another artist explained what they were working on... 🦋your authenticity will be missed.

RIP, Bronwyn! It was always such a joy to see Bronwyn here in Hudson.
We will miss Bronwyn so much.

Wolfgang Darlington

I first met Bronwyn Rucker over 10 years ago when she was singing at The Monster. I was immediately struck by her joy, her generosity, her fearlessness, and her love of Broadway. She was a little eccentric in the most delightful way—the best people are.
She was a beacon of light and love to everyone who knew her.
I hope that many, many years from now, I'm still singing and chasing my dreams the way she did.
Bronwyn was an example to us all.
rest in peace, sweet lady.

Francesca Bertolini

Goodbye sweet Bronwyn Rucker, you will be missed always.
See you again "when the fates allow" 🎵❤️

Michael McAssey

Dear Bronwyn Rucker, Rest In Peace, friend.

Very sad to learn today of the passing of Bronwyn Rucker, a talented and nice lady who was a mainstay of the downtown cabaret scene. Hadn't seen her in years but I remember having some nice conversations with her. No details on how she died. RIP.

Adrian Rennie

Sigh. ❤️Bronwyn Rucker, we meet in 2013 Marie's Crisis.
Thanks for your laughs and I missed her smiles. She knows everything about me, and she always let me to hang with her. Luckily she painted a pic of me.
She has alot of good friends. (Hug) ❤️❤️❤️I still love memories when she sings to all everyone w Alex, Jeffrey or Kenney pianists at happy hour - with bartenders.

Very sad. My condolences to her family.

Sue Matsuki
No! I'm so sad. She was a lovely lady!

Kenney M. Green
Really hit harder than I thought.
😥What a special, special lady!

About last night: as a lot of us gathered to remember Bronwyn and her amazing life… It was amazing how many people she touched as a social worker, entertainer and artist.
Stories and songs were shared – then the pictures started to roll in.

I have known Bronwyn for 18 YEARS
- numerous shows, cabarets and afternoons around a piano and realized I DIDN'T HAVE A SINGLE PICTURE OF US!
Thus started the photo dump.
If we've ever taken a picture together please share, post and tag.
I want to remember our time together and I will do the same!
💜💜💜💜

Carolyn Ohlbaum
I'm very shocked and extremely sad to hear about Bronwyn.
I used to play my violin at Trudi Mann's open mics at Butterfield 8, and Bronwyn always would be there. That's how I got to know her.
She was a very lovely person and so terribly talented and creative.

Lynne Lombardi
My sincerest condolences to Bronwyn's family and friends.
I've taken dance classes with her for many, many years.
She's in Luigi's class in Heaven now.

Judi Mark
No!!
OMG!

Jai Mason Miranda Moirai

I am beyond devastated to hear of the passing of the beloved Bronwyn Rucker.
A legend in her own right, and a queen in the cabaret scene.
If I had to describe her to someone who never had the pleasure of knowing her, she was like that one auntie you couldn't wait to see at Christmas. Full of joy, full of life, and always bringing that infectious energy with her... right down to her signature cobalt blue nail polish.
(Which I will never forget helping her look for, only to find it crushed under my car after it fell out of her purse... a very "her" moment.)
When she took the mic, you never quite knew where she was going to take you, but it didn't matter.
You went along for the ride every single time, because it was always fun, always unexpected, and always uniquely her.
She's also a gentle reminder to hold onto the moments and the people while we can. I wish I had a photo with her, but I'm grateful for the memories I do have. Also, the beautiful wood panel painting she made for me of myself in drag, that I'll treasure even more now.
There will never be another quite like you, Bronwyn.
The cabaret space won't feel the same without your name in the lineup or your laughter filling the room.
Rest in power, my dear Auntie. 💙

Kate Medhus

Devastated by this news. She will live on in our hearts and memories.

Francis J Roach - LUIGI'S JAZZ CENTRE

We are sad to learn of the passing of Luigi's student, performer and artist BRONWYN RUCKER. She was in class at the beginning of this month and has been a student since the 1970's.

Susan Kille

My heart is grieving but seeing the love on Bronwyn's FB page provides a lift. She visited last Wednesday to share her diagnosis. She pulled a collage of photos of my family at Meltdown events out of one of the big bags she always seemed to carry. She was bright-eyed and gracefully floated around the room like a balloon, as usual. Less than a week later, her bright light is extinguished. We met Bronwyn in 1989, when my husband, our two young daughters and I moved to a Brooklyn brownstone 2 floors below her and Rick. Bronwyn babysat, taught our daughters to roller skate, came to birthday parties and just always was around. As a family, we saw many of her shows, even one when the girls were young and the walls were covered by large paintings of penises. At her Christmas Shows, it's my grandmother's bell she rings during "Silver Bells."
Peace.

Tom Sawyer

Bronwyn was a star. She always will be. She starred in her life and by her example she encouraged all of us to open up and find some of that same shine inside as well. It was abundantly clear at her many shows and celebrations that she burnished the stars within her many other friends the same way. I'm reminded of her art, surprising ideas, wit and joy every day now as I spot people and words around me that make me think of how her stories and performances were knitted from her witness and love of the characters and dramas constantly playing out around her. Bronwyn was a lovely person and a true friend. How fortunate we all are to have known her. Those memories and inspirations for living life in full are our keepsakes forever.

Bill Sattan

Our Dear Bronwyn made this jewelry with pieces of her art work for my zoom art class. May you rest in peace!

J. Dolan Byrnes

They were lovely.

Carlos Knauth

Glad I found something saying from you and expressing " love you" ..
I hardly use those words until I really mean it and feel it in the moment and oh boy! I FEEL it.. thank you from eternity for feeling love for me .. I love you too ... bronwyn .. unique , special, my norma and all around a light of inspiration and humanity .. a true " diva " in the best sense of the word in my carlos book ..you shine so bright baby..
so luminescent for me and for all of us forever... xox

May flights of Angels sing thee to thy rest, dear Bronwyn.
She was an original Theater Artist. Full of Love and Heart.

Marion Margaret DeSio

I am so heartbroken.

Jim Eshelman

Bronwyn Rucker RIP.
Creative and performing force, bursting with music and joy.
Generously aided countless people in their creative efforts for half a century.
Social worker by day, cabaret producer and performer by night.
She unleashed so much life to the cluster of venues around 7th and Bleeker
(and winding up the west side to Hell's Kitchen) that her joy will never leave the place.
In an interview a few years ago, she was asked, "Which is the most memorable experience you've had in your singing and acting career?"
She answered, "This is still yet to come."
Her recent 75th birthday bash at Don't Tell Mama is still the talk of the town.
I wish we could have been there.

Paulette Hunt

beautiful!

Luigi's Jazz Centre

Luigi's Jazz Centre is sadly missing Bronwyn Rucker. She started classes with Luigi at Luigi's Jazz Centre West 62nd St. location in the 1970's and continued to in April of this year. Bronwyn was a loving performer, artist and a wonderful soul.
Our condolences to her husband and her many theater friends.

Henry Dee

Bronwyn was one of the very first people I met in the music rooms of NYC when I first moved here in 2000. I immediately connected with her emotional and unique delivery of the song she was singing.
I'm trying to remember exactly which song it was but it could have been "Being Green".
I became a fan of her wondrous talent. We became fast friends and I can remember walking down the sidewalk with her many times after music events.
She was full of ideas and just bubbling with enthusiasm. When I saw her first live performance, I realized I was witnessing something very great, very original and unforgettable. And so it went, our wonderful friendship for many years to come. Then came the day that we went to see Anita O'Day at club Fez in the Village. Bronwyn, being a social worker and advocate for people in need of help saw Anita and something just clicked.
Her heart went right out to her. Bronwyn introduced herself to Anita who was sitting on a stool waiting to go on. Thus became a friendship of caring and companionship to Anita while she was living in NY.
She would take her shopping and help her in any way she could.
A generous friend she was and at a time when Anita needed one.
Just one of the many amazing things Bronwyn did. She worked with the homeless, advocated for human rights and kept growing in her art, music and acting. I also had the wonderful pleasure of becoming a dear friend of Bronwyn's amazing husband Rick whose knowledge of show business history boggles the mind. Such a delightful and devoted couple. The two started out performing together in the early days of their relationship and I love them both. I never thought when this photo was taken just a couple of weeks ago that it would be the last time I would see my dear Bronwyn. How wonderful it was to visit with her that day. Of course, she was a joy as usual. I feel so blessed to have that day to remember.
I will never ever forget Bronwyn and I honor her legacy.
Love, Henry X0

Mary Burns Holmes

My dear dear friend Bronwyn has passed. She was a light and a delight. Sigh.
Oh no! My photos of Bronwyn Rucker are from our cross country trip together with Jim Valley in 1971. My dog Sunshine joined us all the way to the west coast. We camped and had many adventures. I got to meet Bucky along the way.
I had been the wardrobe mistress at the Pittsburgh Playhouse where she was acting. I sat with her at the after party where I fell in love with her as she wistfully sang... "tra la la la" to no one in particular. We tried out for a children's theater together singing and dancing to "I won't grow up"... appropriate for both of us.
We took my daughter to visit when she lived in NY and she visited my husband and I in NJ and when he was at a convention at the Waldorf Astoria.
She was dear to me and left sweet and delicate foot prints on my heart.
Thank you for loving us Bronwyn. Rest in Peace.

My dear Aunt Barbie

I just received your package yesterday. I thought I would have time to send one back.
Even with distance, you were always a role model to me. Always yourself, beautiful, eclectic, and my favorite artist. I love you and I miss you always. Especially now. You're with Grandad, Grandma, Stephanie, Jesse, and Bucky now. Today, I wear rose colored glasses, drink white wine with a couple of ice cubes in it, and sing your biggest hits in your memory. I love you. 🍸💜

I miss you so much, my dear. Every day I miss you.
We will see each other again some day, I hope, in another life, in a better world.

Bethe Austin

I remember her as such a sweet, kooky, funny,
a lovely eccentric actress - always endearing.

Dave Hillman

To know the universally beloved Bronwyn Rucker was a true blessing for me.
Always upbeat, always fun, devoted to her art and to her husband Rick, Bronwyn, without fail, personified unprovoked joy. I never once saw this girl in a bad mood. Except when we discussed politics, but nowadays that's normal. We both enjoyed discussing the current madness and I think she appreciated the fact that she could vent with me; I know I did with her.

Bronwyn is (let's just go with "is," I can't say "was" right now) the personification of goodwill. From time to time, and not enough she and I enjoyed the slightly wicked practice of "day drinking," everywhere from rainy afternoons at the White Horse Tavern and Cowgirl to, of course, happy hour(s) at Ty's and Julius', where she is worshipped accordingly.

Bronwyn truly loved the Christmas season, and her Christmas shows at Don't Tell Mama's are justifiably famous for their charm, wit and old-fashioned celebrations of music, friends, New York, good cheer and holiday warmth. On and off stage, Bronwyn radiated love without treacle; that's a rare talent indeed, but only one of many she possessed. The Christmas shows for me are legend and I will absolutely miss them, as I'm sure will all her many fans.

Bronwyn surprised the hell out of me several times. Not only could she hold her liquor (but always with an eye on time and the caveat of "I don't want to worry Rick"), she had an amazing knack of showing up with gifts. She gave me a portrait of myself (the first and only, completely unexpected) that she did completely from memory; it's uncannily accurate and it is on my wall, even though it is of the real old current me and not the young version of me that I occasionally try to enact at moments in public after that fourth cocktail. She also gave me several housewarming presents for my latest apartment, two paintings (also on my walls) and an incredible stainless steel pot that I use almost every day.

She is just like that. She will never be far from my mind. I would surely call Bronwyn Rucker indelible, and then beyond. She was easily one of the finest women I've ever known, and the only woman I enjoyed kicking back with on a frequent basis.

I must say that Bronwyn persistently encouraged me to write and keep writing. She could be a critic. She could also be openly pleased when she thought I nailed something, and those moments thrilled me. I found Bronwyn's opinions on most matters always to be thoughtful, measured and insightful.

A class act, without effort. We have lost one of the great New Yorkers, really one of the great humans, but when I visit our haunts, I'll think of her, and wish for one more grand entrance through the door with her bag(s). And it was always a grand entrance and usually funny. And then our games would begin.

Rochelle Hall

Oh, I am so sad to hear that Bronwyn Rucker has passed. I first met her when she was my Medical social work supervisor at Brooklyn Hospital. She became a mentor and a dear friend.
So ironic that she worked with very sick and dying patients every day, because she was more full of life than almost anyone I have ever known.
She taught me so much. I will miss her.

Woody Regan

So sad. Bronwyn was a great artist, a trailblazer, and the epitome of kindness and generosity.
She will be remembered and forever missed.
Her way of working was challenging to me and ended up a great inspiration. Our work together enabled me to be cast by Sam Shepard, which finally took me to The Moscow Art Theater. And I told her about that afterwards. So she knew of my thoughts.
She really got me going in new directions!

David J Diamond

I still remember the first time I met Bronwyn - when I was doing tech for her cabaret show. I thought she was so original. Getting to know her over the years, it was clear that she was an extraordinary person and unique talent. I was glad whenever our paths happened to cross.
...may her name be a blessing.

Michael Mayer

Bronwyn was sui generis and, to my mind, under-appreciated by the general public; but those of us who had the rare privilege of making work with her, watching the way her creative spirit met the moments at hand, and benefitting from her generous and beautiful heart will always hold her in a special place.

For almost 25 years, I knew Bronwyn as the lady who would come to Marie's Crisis around sundown and infuse a song with her passionate, physically expansive and touching essence, turning whichever song it was into poetry. (I recall clicking into knowing she was a genius when she started doing 'Stumble Along' from 'The Dirty Chaperone.') I was so honored that she brought me into her cabaret community over the past few years.
