INTROIT - entrance Psalm of worship, sung by God's people for thousands of worship 2 Peter 3, Ps. 39,16

℗ We are looking forward to a new heaven and a | new earth *
the home of | righteousness.

ℂ O Lord, make me know my end, what is the measure | of my days;
let me know how fleeting | is my life!

℗ Each man's life is | but a breath. *
And now, O Lord, for what | do I wait?

ℂ My hope | is in you. *
Deliver me from all my trans- | gressions.

℗ Preserve me, | O God, *
for in you I take | refuge.

ℂ I say to the Lord, You | are my Lord; ***
I have no good a-| part from you.

℗ The sorrows of those who run after another god shall | multiply; *
I bless the LORD who gives me | counsel;

ℂ The Lord is my chosen portion | and my cup; ***
you | hold my lot.

℗ Therefore my heart is glad, and my whole being re- | joices; *
my flesh also | dwells secure.

ℂ You make known to me the | path of life; *
in your presence there is fullness of joy, at your right hand are pleasures for- | evermore.

℗ The one who endures to the end | will be saved. *
Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do | not expect.

COLLECT OF THE DAY - ancient prayer of the Church based upon the Scriptural theme of the day

℗ O Lord, absolve Your people from their offenses that, from the bonds of our sins which by reason of our frailty we have brought upon ourselves, we may be delivered by Your bountiful goodness; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

ℂ Continued with sung "Amen", p. 189

OLD TESTAMENT Isaiah 65:17–25

"Behold, I create new heavens and a new earth, and the former things shall not be remembered or come into mind. But be glad and rejoice forever in that which I create; for behold, I create Jerusalem to be a joy, and her people to be a gladness. I will rejoice in Jerusalem and be glad in my people; no more shall be heard in it the sound of weeping and the cry of distress. No more shall there be in it an infant who lives but a few days, or an old man who does not fill out his days, for the young man shall die a hundred years old, and the sinner a hundred years old shall be accursed. They shall build houses and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit. They shall not build and another inhabit; they shall not plant and another eat; for like the days of a tree shall the days of my people be, and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands. They shall not labor in vain or bear children for calamity, for they shall be the offspring of the blessed of the Lord, and their descendants with them. Before they call I will answer; while they are yet speaking I will hear. The wolf and the lamb shall graze together; the lion shall eat straw like the ox, and dust shall be the serpent's food. They shall not hurt or destroy in all my holy mountain," says the Lord.

GRADUAL the ancient seasonal, Scriptural response to hearing God's Word Isaiah 39

℗ The ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion with | singing; *
everlasting joy shall be up- | on their heads.

ℂ They shall obtain glad- | ness and joy, *
and sorrow and sighing shall | flee away.

EPISTLE 1 Thessalonians 5:1–11

Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves are fully aware that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. While people are saying, "There is peace and security," then sudden destruction will come upon them as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. But you are not in darkness, brothers, for that day to surprise you like a thief. For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness. So then let us not sleep, as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober. For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk, are drunk at night. But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. For God has not destined us for wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us so that whether we are awake or asleep we might live with him. Therefore encourage one another and build one another up, just as you are doing.

ALLELUIA VERSE Rev. 21

℗ Alleluia. Alleluia. I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. Alleluia.

HOLY GOSPEL Matthew 25:1–13

Jesus said: "The kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. For when the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them, but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps. As the bridegroom was delayed, they all became drowsy and slept. But at midnight there was a cry, 'Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.' Then all those virgins rose and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' But the wise answered, saying, 'Since there will not be enough for us and for you, go rather to the dealers and buy for yourselves.' And while they were going to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the marriage feast, and the door was shut. Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, 'Lord, lord, open to us.' But he answered, 'Truly, I say to you, I do not know you.' Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

Risen Savior Lutheran Church

Basehor, Kansas - Lutheran Church Missouri Synod

Last Sunday of Church Year — Nov. 22, 2026

Welcome to the Lord's House. By Faith We Are Prepared for Christ's Return. "The day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night" (1 Thess. 5:1–11). The arrival of the bridegroom will be sudden and unexpected. Therefore you are to be watchful, "For you know neither the day nor the hour" when the Son of Man is to return. (Matt. 25:1–13). The lamps are the Word of Christ. The oil in the lamps is the Holy Spirit, who works through the Word to create and sustain the flame of faith in Christ. The foolish are those who do not give proper attention to the working of the Holy Spirit in baptism, preaching, and the supper, and so their faith does not endure. The wise, however, are those who diligently attend to these gifts of the Spirit, and who therefore have an abundance of oil. The flame of faith endures to the end. By God's grace they are received into the eternal wedding feast of the Lamb in His kingdom, the new heavens and the new earth created by the Lord for the joy of His people (Is. 65:17–25). The Lord bless this Divine Service.

Behold, I create new heavens and a new earth, and the former things shall not be remembered or come into mind. But be glad and rejoice forever in that which I create.
Is.65

We celebrate the Lord's Supper today, in the confession, as Jesus says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread, wine but His very real, true body, blood to eat, drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him, and with one another. According to Scripture, Holy Communion is also a public confession of faith, sharing a unity in doctrinal belief; also those who eat, drink our Lord's body, blood unworthily or without discernment do so to their harm. In love towards God and our neighbor, according to Scripture, the Church has always practiced a closed communion. Therefore, in love and pastoral concern for our guests, if you are not a member of the LCMS and desire to receive the Sacrament, please speak with the pastor first.
