2027 Membership Application

The Vermont Towing Association allows associate members to join as individuals providing the individual is an employee of a regular member or a person who can further benefit the association in some capacity. Associate members do not have voting rights. We welcome your application and $100.00 annual dues. Once your application is approved, you will be listed on our general email list and entitled to attend VTA functions, meetings and trainings.

We thank you for your continued interest and supporting our mission to make the Vermont Towing Community a stronger organized group of dedicated companies and individuals.
