PHOENIX AWARD

NWHA works to promote the naturally-gaited walking horse, advocate for its welfare, and give sored, abused horses a chance for a better, kinder life. There are many special people working to protect our wonderful breed from abuse. It is only fitting that we honor these individuals for their exceptional contributions to our cause. Over the years, NWHA desires to acknowledge and honor them all!

The Phoenix Award recognizes and honors a person or persons who have been active in supporting, promoting, and/or advocating for the SOUND Walking Horse; someone(s) who has made or is making an outstanding contribution to these horses. Such activity can include (but is not limited to):

1. Rehabilitating a horse or horses
2. Rescuing a horse or horses
3. Publicly speaking and/or writing against the act of soring.
