This Week at Good Shepherd

STEWARDSHIP: IMMERSED IN ABUNDANCE

This Sunday at both services, longtime staff member Jo Wood will share a part of her story and what Good Shepherd has meant in her life. Jo has helped shape this community in countless ways, and her story is a wonderful reminder that the abundance of God is often found in the relationships we build and the lives we share.

Next Sunday is Giving Sunday, when we will be invited to bring our 2027 pledge cards forward for a blessing. It is a moment to reflect on all that God is doing among us and consider how each of us can help shape Good Shepherd's future. As we prepare for this special Sunday, we invite you to prayerfully consider your commitment for the coming year and giving thanks for what we have received and responding with generosity.

GRACE IN GRIEF: TODAY, 11:15 AM

Persons experiencing loss are welcome to join the Grace in Grief this morning directly after the 10:00 AM service. This group offers a safe and compassionate space to share, listen, and heal together. Meets in the Library.

A Look Ahead

FOOD PANTRY THANKSGIVING: NOVEMBER 24, 11:00 AM

Thanksgiving is our biggest event of the year at the Food Pantry. We will provide 100 families in our community with the complete fixins for a Thanksgiving dinner. How You Can Help: bring a single item, or fill a basket: stuffing mix, chicken broth, mashed potato mix, canned green beans, corn, and yams; mac & cheese, gravy, cranberry sauce. Baskets will be distributed Tuesday, November 24.

SURVIVING THE HOLIDAYS: NOVEMBER 24, 5:00 PM

For people who've lost a loved one, the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons can be bleak. The lay-led event 'Surviving the Holidays' offers coping tools, strategies, and support for grieving congregation members and people in our community. The event will be held in the Good Shepherd Library.

RUN 4 THE PIES: NOVEMBER 26, 8:00 AM

The Annual Run 4 the Pies will commence on Thanksgiving Day morning, November 26. Run 4 the Pies has been a Thanksgiving Day tradition for runners, walkers, and spectators in Tequesta since 2000. Volunteers are needed to help with parking, collecting food, water stations, medals and pies. Community service hours are given and T-shirts are provided. Sign up in the Narthex. For more information, contact Jo Wood, 561-746-4674.

O.W.L.S. THANKSGIVING DINNER: NOVEMBER 26, 2:00 PM

The O.W.L.S. - Older, Wiser, Livelier Shepherds - will host their annual Thanksgiving Day dinner from 2:00 - 4:00 PM Thanksgiving Day, November 26 in the parish hall. Save The Date

BAPTISM: NOVEMBER 22, 10:00 AM

Next Sunday, we will joyfully celebrate the baptism of Riley John Steinemann, child of Sean and Sarah Steinemann, who will be welcomed into the household of God. Please keep Riley and the family in your prayers as we prepare to welcome a new member of Christ's Body, the Church.

NOVEMBER 29: ADVENT & CHRISTMAS WREATH MAKING

Get into the holiday spirit and join us on Sunday, November 29, following the 10:00 AM service in the Parish Hall for a fun and festive wreath-making event! Our very own Sexton, Laz Fernandez, will lead us in creating beautiful decorative wreaths to hang on your front door this Advent and Christmas season. All supplies will be provided. To ensure we have enough supplies for everyone, please sign up in the Narthex or call the church office to reserve your spot. Come enjoy some fellowship, creativity, and Christmas cheer!

DECEMBER 3: ADVENT BOOK STUDY BEGINS

We often associate light with goodness and darkness with fear or danger. But doesn't God work in the darkness, too? This Advent, join us as we explore Barbara Brown Taylor's Learning to Walk in the Dark, an invitation to set aside our fears, embrace the unknown, and discover what God can teach us in life's darker moments. Our three-week Advent study begins Thursday, December 3, at 4:00 PM, in the library or via Zoom.
