Share the Joy of Books – Become a Book Benefactor!

At LittleFreeBookshop.com, we believe in spreading the love of reading while giving used books a second life. By donating your gently used books, you can help us provide free access to stories, knowledge, and inspiration for readers everywhere.

How It Works

- Send Your Book List – Share a list of the books you'd like to donate (or simply snap a photo of them).We Add Them Online – Your titles will be listed in our virtual bookstore.
- Ship When Needed – When someone requests a book you've donated, we'll email you a prepaid shipping label—just print, attach to a mailer, and drop it at the post office.
- Make an Impact – Feel good knowing you're promoting literacy, sustainability, and the joy of reading.

What You'll Receive

- Mailing supplies (labels, mailers, and inserts).
- A tax deduction for the fair market value of your donations (we're a registered 501(c)(3) nonprofit).
- The assurance that your personal information is safe—we never share it or post it online.

Join Us Today!

Your support makes all the difference. By becoming a Book Benefactor, you help ensure that books reach the hands of readers who need them most. Together, we can create a community where stories are free, shared, and celebrated.
