A Group Exhibition

Curated by Mohammed A. Hafiz

Athr Gallery, 5th Floor, Spaces 01, 04, 05

Opening: 23rd January 2015

[insert range here] explores works that are centered on the use of Arabic text and language by Saudi artists from different generations, backgrounds and disciplines; their approaches and experiments vary from the conceptual to the formal, and stand in distinct contrast to its traditional aesthetics. The works are positioned as individual departing points that simulate the imagination, translating their meaning into limitless textual landscapes… Landscapes that are dependent on each viewer's personal range of interpretation.

Participating artists include Ibrahim Abumsmar, Shadia Alem, Ayman Yossri Daydban, Mahdi Aljereibi, Abdelkarim Qassem, Nasser Al Salem, Bakr Sheikhoon, and Batool Alshomrani.
