

Lisa Layne

"There is not a finer voice in country music." Cal Smith The Country Bumpkin

"When it comes to singing a Patsy Cline song, NOBODY can touch LISA LAYNE. She has the gift. If you close your eyes and listen you can feel Patsy's presence as Lisa sings. It is an awesome experience."

Artist Statement

As a Singer / Songwriter, Vocal Coach and musician it's been my dream to use my talents, training, and experience, to touch as many people as possible through my music. I was able to craft my skills through a mix of formal education and the invaluable knowledge gained through my extensive performance experiences.

My worldwide performances both live and recorded over the past 40 years, have given me the opportunity to share life's journey with many diverse audiences through my music.

It has been an honor to have recorded "All I Want For Christmas Is You" with Vince Vance and the Valiants, the number 5 most requested Christmas song of all time. This experience alone has made me grateful and humble to bring millions of people happiness every year

The Early Days

- Lisa was born in Tyler, TX and at the age of 3 moved to Dallas, TX. She began singing professionally at the tender age of 4. Lisa worked shows with her Dad, who is a professional musician, on and off thru her school years.
- Lisa formed her first band “Beaver Creek” just after high school. She was the lead vocalist and played Bass Guitar. This ultimately led to her being noticed by, Vince Vance and The Valiants. Lisa worked the road with them from 1986 - 1991. During that time they recorded the Christmas hit "ALL I WANT FOR CHRISTMAS IS YOU" with Lisa as the lead vocalist. Today it is recognized as the #5 most requested Christmas song of all time.

The Nashville Days

- Lisa moved to Nashville. and joined a very successful Beach Music Band and toured with them until 1995. In early '93 Lisa won the role of Patsy Cline in the first National Tour of a "Closer Walk With Patsy Cline". She toured with that troupe for the better part of 2 years before joining the Nashville Troupe as the lead in the same show at the Ernest Tubb Record Shop's "Texas Troubadour Theater" from '98 thru 2000.
- In 2005 Lisa was inducted along with Vince Vance and Valiants into the Louisiana music Hall of fame.
- IN 2005 she re-recorded "All I Want For Chirstmas Is You" on a full length Christmas album accompanied by the World Famous Jordanares on all twelve songs.

On To Branson

- In early 2005 Lisa moved to Branson to perform on the Jim Owen Show which opened the door to the Lisa Layne Show.
- From 2005-2007 Lisa and her husband produced the Lisa Layne Country show where they performed at the God and Country Theater, 10 shows a week.
- In 2008-2011, due to the work as Patsy Cline back in Nashville, they had the opportunity to produce and perform the Ted Swindley production of Always Patsy Cline back at the God and Country Theater. This show won the “Branson Show Awards” Best Live Musical in both 2010 and 2011 as well as Lisa receiving the Female Vocalist of the Year in 2010.
- In 2011 they closed the Always Patsy Cline production in Branson and moved back home to Texas, closer to her mom.

Today In Texas

- In 2011 back in Texas she formed the band “Lisa Layne and One Layne Road”, focusing on recording and performing music at festivals, fairs, corporate events, casinos and good ole Texas dance halls.
- In 2016-2017 Lisa was awarded the Will Rogers Pure Country Female Vocalist of the year by the Academy of Western Artists.
- Now from 2017, Lisa Layne has been singing with her country band “Lisa Layne And One Layne Road” all over the US. While continuing to perform in her own production of “Reflections of Patsy”.
- Most Recently, Lisa got the cherished opportunity to perform as a guest of Country Music Icon Gene Watson, for her first ever appearance on the Grand Ole Opry in December 2022. “ A True Honor ” – Lisa Layne

Artist Resume

- Lisa and the band have opened for Restless Heart, Bobby Flores as well as headlining at the Texas State Fair, National Corgi Dog Show and the Penny Gilley Show on RFD TV. Lisa has also performed at the Lil Reds Longhorn Saloon in the Ft. Worth Stock Yards and the legendary Stagecoach Ballroom along with many more venues and events.
- She has also appeared on stage with: Miami Sound Stage, Willie Nelson, Dolly Parton, Hall and Oates, Julio Iglesias, Little Eva, Larry Gatlin, Fats Domino, Chicago, Mel McDaniel, Jimmy C. Newman, Johnny Russell, Janie Fricke, Johnny Lee and many many others. She is without questions a seasoned performer and a true professional. There is not a finer voice in Country Music.
