African-American Club of Hernando Inc.

AAC Patrons Donation Form

We are reaching out to our membership to become Patrons of the African American Club of Hernando. You will be elevating your support to our scholarship program and other goals. Your participation in our Patron Program will help the African American Club accomplish its mission of providing social and educational activities for our members and people of the community. Please see the pledge levels and the inclusions for each level on the reverse side. We thank you in advance for your continuous support.
