Thank you for your interest in selling your book at our store.

We're proud to support local authors at The Barn Owl. We do our best to provide shelf space for books by local authors, while keeping in mind our inventory needs and the interests of our customers. We look forward to reviewing your work.

If you would like your book considered for stock, please follow these guidelines:

- You must be an Idaho author or live within 100 miles of The Barn Owl.
- All stocking requests must be made in writing. We regret that we are unable to accommodate walk-in visits or telephone inquiries prior to acceptance due to the number of inquiries that we receive.
- If your book is self-published and not readily available through our normal wholesaler, in keeping with our general inventory, only books published with a printed and bound spine and displaying an International Standard Book Number (ISBN) will be considered. Our normal terms are 60/40, i.e., we take a 40% discount.
- If your book has been published by an established publisher, and we decide to carry it, we will purchase it directly from that publisher or wholesaler. If that is the case, you are welcome to send us notification of your book's publication at cbrown@thebarnowlmccall.com.
- Send or drop off a single review copy along with a self-addressed stamped envelope with sufficient postage to cover the cost of returning the book to: The Barn Owl Books and Gifts, 616 N. 3rd. St., Suite 110, McCall, ID 83638. The review copy of your book will be returned to you in the envelope you have provided. Books submitted without a return SASE will be held at our front desk for pick-up for 30 days, after which it will be donated to a local charitable organization.
- Once we have received the completed Local Author Book Submission Form and a review copy, we will begin the review process. Due to the volume of submissions, this can take several weeks. We'll notify you of our decision by email.
