Day 1 | Calgary

For those who purchase flights with Jamieson Travel, we depart early this morning with pick ups along Highway 417 as we make our way to the airport. Upon arrival at the Calgary Airport, we transfer to our hotel for the night.

Day 2 | Revelstoke

Our first stop today will be at Banff National Park, where you will have some time to explore the shops and have a cup of coffee. We will enter BC and cross through the Rogers Pass and on to Revelstoke, located in the World's only inland temperate rainforest, our home for tonight.

Day 3 | Victoria

Today we head to the coast. We will make a stop in Hope, BC on the Fraser River for lunch. After lunch we make our way Tsawwassen Ferry Terminal to cross to Victoria. Keep your eyes open for whales and other sea life as you sail through the gulf islands and on to your home away from home, Victoria for seven nights.

Day 4 | Victoria

This morning you will have free time to get acquainted with your home, the Royal Scot Hotel & Suites. There should also be some time to head over to the grocery store to stock your kitchenette for the week. There are many interesting sights within a short walk of the hotel, including the BC Legislative Building. This afternoon, we will have a City Tour, including the scenic Marine Drive. We may even get to do some beach combing!

Day 5 | Malahat Skywalk & Inner Harbour

Heading up island today, the first stop will be the Malahat Skywalk offering awe inspiring views of sea inlets and mountains. Then off to The Hand of Man Museum in Duncan. This 15,000-square-foot facility showcasing an extensive collection of artifacts from around the world. Founded by Jim Shockey, the museum offers a unique blend of natural history, cultural arts, and conservation education. Visitors can explore over 100,000 items, including taxidermy specimens, tribal artifacts, prehistoric fossils, and more. After, take a leisurely walk through the town of Duncan and take in all the amazing Totem Poles whose designs reflect people's lives, business and families.

Day 6 | Free Day

Enjoy a free day to explore downtown Victoria! Ask your tour director for suggestions on things to do and see in the area during your free time! Perhaps you'd like to take in a whale watching cruise, ghost walk, visit a museum, take a pickle boat ride around the harbour? The options are endless!

Day 7 | Free Day

Enjoy another free day to explore Victoria at your leisure.

Day 8 | Burtchart & Butterfly Gardens

Board our coach for Butchart Gardens. For over 90 years this amazing 50 acre garden has been a symbol of Victoria's beauty. We will also stop at the Butterfly Gardens today.

Day 9 | Fort Rodd Hill National Historic Site

This morning, we take a trip back in time at the Fort Rodd Hill National Historic Site & Fisgard Lighthouse. Fort Rodd Hill is a 19th-century coastal artillery fortress that was active from 1895 to 1956. Strategically situated to defend the Victoria-Esquimalt region, the fort features well preserved gun batteries, underground magazines, barracks, and searchlight emplacements. Fisgard Lighthouse, completed in 1860, holds the distinction of being the first permanent lighthouse on Canada's Pacific coast. The afternoon is yours to explore in Victoria, get in any last minute sights or maybe just a leisurely stroll around the Inner Harbour.

Day 10 | Kelowna

Sit back and relax on one last ferry crossing. Once on the mainland, enjoy an included lunch before stepping into a sea of colour at the Harrison Tulip Festival, where millions of vibrant tulips bloom against the breathtaking backdrop of the Fraser Valley mountains, at the largest tulip festival in BC. The festival celebrates an end to Winter and to the beauty of Spring. Upon arriving in Kelowna, enjoy a free evening.

Day 11 | Kelowna

This morning starts with a guided tour of the KF Aerospace Museum, which is dedicated to the history of aviation, particularly in Canada. The museum shows a wide range of aircraft, aviation history and exhibits related to the aerospace industry, with a focus on both civilian and military aviation. Then enjoy a free afternoon to perhaps stroll the waterfront of Lake Okanagan or enjoy the downtown area with its unique shops.

Day 12 | Calgary

Today's first stop is Revelstoke, then on to Golden for a lunch break and admire the Kicking Horse River. Arriving Calgary early evening.

Day 13 | Home

The tour is complete. For those with flights with Jamieson Travel, today we make our way home to the Ottawa Valley, departing from Calgary airport. Drops offs from the Ottawa Airport will be in reverse order along Highway 417.
