LAZORE

PRESS RELEASE

Debut Album Drop

2.26.2023

Straight from the heart of New York, with a record destined to reach the playlists and charts all around the globe, LAZORE's self-titled EP contains five powerfully gripping tracks that thoroughly prove this solo artist's debut is anything but typical.

From the inspired authenticity found at the core of each song, to the fusion of melodic intensity & bold emotions running through the veins of LAZORE's entire set-list, he has set up shop to dominate the year with music that's wildly relatable, yet completely unlike any other.

Through compelling vibes & thought-provoking themes, and supremely expressive material that directly reflects on his own personal experiences, LAZORE created his debut in a sincere effort to connect people together from all corners of the map & all walks of life through songs with fierce heart & true substance.

Designing an evocative journey into the depths of the psyche with insightful observation, fueled by the supercharged charisma of his fired-up Alt-Rock sound and vivid details & imagery within his songwriting, LAZORE's EP will earn its attention & accolades through a vibrant lineup of songs that is second to none.

Ready to exceed all possible expectations by making music that genuinely matters, LAZORE's self-titled debut gets its official release February 26th.

Beyond excited to unleash an explosive lineup of songs that fully reveal what he's capable of as a singer/songwriter as he steps confidently into the spotlight and the next chapter of his story as an artist – join LAZORE this year in celebration of the release of his very first record by turning his new songs up LOUD, and streaming them from every major online music platform.
