THANKSGIVING DAY

by Lydia Maria Child

Over the river, and through the wood
Trot fast, my dapple-gray!
Spring over the ground,
Like a hunting-hound!
For this is Thanksgiving Day.
Over the river, and through the wood,
And straight through the barn-yard gate.
We seem to go
Extremely slow,—
It is so hard to wait!
Over the river and through the wood—
Now grandmother's cap I spy!
Hurrah for the fun!
Is the pudding done?
Hurrah for the pumpkin-pie!

Come Before His Presence with Thanksgiving
O come, let us sing unto the LORD;
let us shout for joy to the Rock of our salvation.
Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving,
let us shout for joy unto Him with psalms.
For the LORD is a great God,
and a great King above all gods;
In whose hand are the depths of the earth;
the heights of the mountains are His also.
The sea is His, and He made it;
and His hands formed the dry land
O come, let us bow down and bend the knee;
let us kneel before the LORD our Maker;
For He is our God,
and we are the people of His pasture,
and the flock of His hand.
Psalm 95

THANKSGIVING

Old Rhyme

The year has turned its circle,
The seasons come and go.
The harvest all is gathered in
And chilly north winds blow.
Orchards have shared
their treasures,
The fields, their yellow grain,
So open wide the doorway~
Thanksgiving comes again!

Thanksgiving

A day of reflection for blessings bestowed
A day spent with family and friends both new and old
A day of feasting, fellowship and fun
A day to give thanks for all God has done

This day has been celebrated year after year
By people of all cultures both far and near
It's a day most people reflect on how they have been blessed
All the ways, the people and things that brought blessings are addresse

There's turkey and dressing, cranberry sauce and lots of dessert to eat
Everyone fixing their plates, going for seconds while all diets cease
There's lots of greeting, laughter and eating being done
While the men look at football, children play games and women's conversation goes on and on

This is one of the greatest days looked forward to for the year
It brings people together in unity and makes hearts full of cheer
This day is set aside to give thanks for everything
This is the will of our Heavenly Father for everyday, not just for Thanksgiving

MORE THAN A DAY

As Thanksgiving Day rolls around,
It brings up some facts, quite profound.
We may think that we're poor,
Feel like bums, insecure,
But in truth, our riches astound.
We have friends and family we love;
We have guidance from heaven above.
We have so much more
Than they sell in a store,
We're wealthy, when push comes to shove.
So add up your blessings, I say;
Make Thanksgiving last more than a day.
Enjoy what you've got;
Realize it's a lot,
And you'll make all your cares go away.
