FROM THE PASTOR

Sunday, October 25th The 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Love of God and love of neighbor is two sides of one coin. Without loving God with a complete commitment, one will not be able to love others sincerely and unselfishly. In the same way, without loving the other, one's neighbors, one cannot be authentically loving God. St. John writes in his letter that if anyone doesn't love their neighbor and hates him, and says he loves God, he is a liar.

In the Old and the New Testaments, this aspect of LOVE OF GOD AND LOVE OF NEIGHBOR is the basis of faith and practice for the Hebrews and for Christians. Jesus combines the Jewish Shema prayer, "Therefore, you shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength" (Dt 6:5) with its complementary law "You shall love your neighbor as yourself" (Lv19:18). Our Lord categorically declares that the "whole Law and the Prophets" depended on the commandments to love God "with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind" and to love "your neighbor as yourself."

In Calcutta, India, there is a children's home named Shishu Bhavan (Children's Home), founded by Mother Teresa. The home continues to be operated by her community, the Missionaries of Charity. On the wall of the home hangs a sign which reads: People are unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered. LOVE THEM ANYWAY. If you do good, people will accuse you of selfish ulterior motives. DO GOOD ANYWAY. If you are successful, you win false friends and true enemies. SUCCEED ANYWAY. The good you do will be forgotten tomorrow. DO GOOD ANYWAY. Honesty and frankness make you vulnerable. BE HONEST AND FRANK ANYWAY. What you spent years building may be destroyed overnight. BUILD ANYWAY. People really need help but may attack you if you help them. HELP PEOPLE ANYWAY. Give the world the best you have and you'll get kicked in the teeth. GIVE THE WORLD THE BEST YOU'VE GOT ANYWAY.

Mother Teresa counsels her young charges that the challenges offered by these ideas can be met only if human beings are motivated by love and a respect for one another which looks beyond faults, differences, ulterior motives, success, and failure. Mother Teresa once said of herself, "By blood and origin, I am all Albanian. My citizenship is Indian. I am a Catholic nun. As to my calling, I belong to the whole world. As to my heart, I belong entirely to the heart of Jesus."

Let's be true children of God, by loving our God with all our heart, with all our soul, and with all our strength, and loving our neighbor as we want to love ourselves.

God Bless, Fr. Jose Parathanal.

This year's bazaar takes place on Friday and Saturday, November 20th & 21st at the St. Theresa Shrine Church Hall.

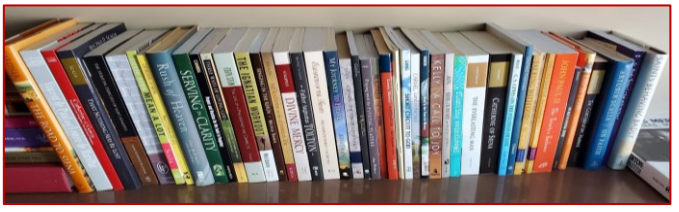
- The Bazaar is now accepting new items for our raffles and gift sales (think things you'd be happy to receive as a gift).
- Consider donating a bottle or two to our very popular wine raffle. Liquor donations are also gratefully accepted.
- Our CCD class baskets are currently being assembled. See your teacher for details.
- Items can be dropped off at the rectory during regular hours, Monday– Thursday 9:00a to 2:00p
- Thanks for your support! The Christmas Bazaar is one of our most important church fundraisers of the year!

Be safe on the internet! At no time will the members of our parish staff ask parishioners for donations in the form of gift cards. If you receive a request that seems to be from one of our staff or clergy members, feel free to delete these, and bock the senders, they are from scammers! If you ever have any questions about a request, simply call the office at 401-568-8280

St. Theresa Shrine of the Little Flower



The Shrine of the Little Flower Gift Shop and Bookstore is located in the convent building on the first floor. The entrance is off to the left of the parking area.
We carry a wide assortment of items designed to help you live a Catholic life including rosaries, saint statues, medals, many great books, and of course, the writings of St. Therese of Lisieux.
Stop in and visit us! We are open most days, simply ring the bell for service and one of our convent residents will be most happy to help you!

Candle intentions at the Shrine can be made for the St. Therese, St. Joseph, Our Lady or the Sanctuary Candle. The suggested donation is $10 per week.

The Shrine and parish remind everyone that as we move into the winter months, the parish follows the town of Burrillville for closures. If Burrillville Schools are closed, then activities at the parish are cancelled. Masses continue as scheduled unless it is too hazardous for our priests to walk to the Churches. Please use prudence when making weather related decisions to attend Mass or parish activities.
