What is Purgatory?

In Catholic theology, Purgatory is not a destination of eternal punishment or a "second chance" at salvation, but rather a temporary state of final purification. It is reserved exclusively for souls who die in a state of grace and friendship with God — meaning their ultimate salvation is already assured — but who are still burdened by venial (lesser) sins or unhealthy attachments to earthly things. Because scripture teaches that nothing unclean can enter the direct, glorious presence of God in Heaven, Purgatory acts as a spiritual refining process. It strips away the remaining tarnish of sin so the soul can eventually embrace God with perfect, unhindered love.

The experience of Purgatory is traditionally understood as a mixture of both suffering and profound joy. The suffering arises from the painful process of letting go of earthly attachments and recognizing the true gravity of one's past sins, while the joy stems from the absolute, unwavering certainty that Heaven is their final destination. Furthermore, these souls are not left to undergo this process alone. Through the Communion of Saints, Catholics believe the living can actively assist these "holy souls" in Purgatory; by offering daily prayers, acts of charity, and the sacrifice of the Mass on their behalf, the faithful on Earth help ease their purification and hasten their journey into eternal light.

DIOCESAN NEWS & AREA EVENTS

Bishop's Annual Appeal – Hearts of Mercy: Please accept our deepest gratitude to those of you who have already supported diocesan ministries this year. As of Monday, October 26, the Bishop's Annual Appeal for 2026 has raised cash and pledge gifts of $1,305,856 toward our goal of $1,550,000 (84.25%). This was made possible through the generous donations of 6,183 people throughout the 16 counties of our diocese. For weekly updates on our progress and to help these ministries meet their funding needs, visit www.stcdio.org/annualappeal.

Stewardship as a Way of Life: "Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." - Matthew 25:13
Many of us have put off doing something because we think we are too busy. We've all said, "I'll do it later when I have time." Unfortunately, too many of us apply this attitude to our Faith. Jesus' call is urgent, in the here and now, in your current circumstances. How is God calling you to use your gifts today? Don't delay. None of us is guaranteed tomorrow.

Care for Creation: Conserving resources, reducing waste, supporting sustainable practices or simply pausing to appreciate the beauty around us – becomes a prayer of praise to the Creator. Learn more at https://stcdio.org/care-for-creation/ or use your smart phone.

Upcoming Women's Retreat "Love Without Effort: Finding Holiness in the Love of Jesus Christ" You are being called to join us for a three-day retreat for Catholic women on November 20-22, 2026 at Nazareth Retreat House in Crookston, MN. For more information or to register: Call (605) 929-2551 or email ecclesiaretreats@ecclesiadomestica.com or online at www.ecclesiadomestica.com or scan QR Code

PATHWAYS TO WELLNESS GROUP

WELLNESS MINUTE

Forgiveness can be a powerful act of mercy and a way of releasing resentment, not what happened. You choose, with God's help, not to let anger, bitterness, or revenge control your heart and support peace and emotional well-being. In the Our Father, Jesus teaches us to pray, "Forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors...If you forgive others their transgressions, your heavenly Father will forgive you." (MT 6:12, 14)
A simple practice is to pray: "In the name of Jesus, I choose to forgive [name] for [specific hurt]. Lord, heal what remains in me and guide me in truth, peace, and wise boundaries. Amen."
We must also forgive ourselves. It begins with accepting the forgiveness God offers through repentance. Confession helps us to be honest with ourselves and the Lord. The Lord "pardons all your sins," is "merciful and gracious," and removes our transgressions "as far as the east is from the west." (Psalm 103) St. Francis de Sales advised "Have patience with all things—but first with yourself."
Ask God for the grace to let go of one hurt; not by excusing it, but by refusing to let it rule your heart. Remember what Jesus said on the Cross, "Father, forgive them; they know not what they do." (LK 23:34)
