together with all buildings and other improvements located thereon. The term shall also include all real property and improvements which may hereafter become subject to the Declaration by annexation, as provided in Article IX of the Declaration.

Section 4. "Common Elements" shall mean all portions of the Property other than Unit Estates and shall include, by way of illustration, the above described land, foundations, columns, girders, beams, supports, supporting walls, roofs, fire escapes, entrances and exits to the buildings, yards, gardens, fences, parking areas, and structures not located within the buildings on the above described lands, storage areas and facilities not located within said buildings, all installations of central services, including power, light, gas, hot and cold water, tanks, pumps, motors, fans, compressors, ducts and, in general, all apparatus and installations existing for common use, and all other parts of the Properties necessary or convenient for the common benefit and enjoyment of all the Owners of Unit Estates in the Properties.

Section 5. "Owner" shall mean the record owner, whether one or more persons, of the fee simple title to any Unit Estate, including contract sellers, but shall not include a mortgagee unless such mortgagee has acquired title pursuant to foreclosure or a conveyance in lieu of foreclosure; nor shall such term include any other person who has an interest merely as security for the performance of an obligation.

ARTICLE II

Location

Section 1. The principal office of the Corporation shall be located at 800 S.W. 74th Street Expressway, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 73139.

ARTICLE III

Membership

Section 1. Every Owner of the Unit Estate shall be a member of the Corporation concurrently with the recordation of the instrument of conveyance by which said person becomes an Owner of a Unit Estate.

Section 2. The rights of membership are subject to the payment of regular monthly assessments and emergency assessments levied by the Corporation, the obligation of which assessments is imposed against each Owner of, and becomes a lien upon, the Unit Estate against which such assessments are made, as provided in Article XVII of the Declaration, which provisions are incorporated herein by reference and made a part hereof.

EXHIBIT B

UNOFFICIAL

Section 3. The membership rights of any Owner whose Unit Estate is subject to assessments, whether or not he is personally obligated to pay such assessments, may be suspended by the Board of Directors during the period when the assessments remain unpaid; but, upon payment of such assessments, his rights and privileges shall be automatically restored. If the Directors have adopted and published rules and regulations governing the use of the Common Elements and the personal conduct of any person thereon, they may, in their discretion, suspend the membership rights of any such person for each violation of such rules and regulations for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days.

ARTICLE IV

Voting Rights

Section 1. Each member shall be entitled to representation in all the affairs of the Corporation, in proportion to the interest of said member in the Common Elements, as specified in the Declaration.

Section 2. Voting rights of the members shall be exercised in person or by written proxy, in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation, the Declaration and these By-laws.

ARTICLE V

Property Rights and Rights Of Enjoyment of Common Elements

Section 1. Each Member shall be entitled to the use and enjoyment of the Common Elements, as provided by Article XVIII of the Declaration.

Section 2. Any member may delegate his rights of enjoyment in the Common Elements to members of his family who reside upon the Property or to any of his tenants who reside thereon under a leasehold interest for a term of thirty (30) days or more. Such member shall notify the Secretary in writing of the name of any such person and the relationship of the member to such person. The rights and privileges of such person are subject to suspension under the provisions of Article III, Section 3 of these By-laws to the same extent as those of the member.

ARTICLE VI

Corporation Purposes and Powers

Section 1. The Corporation is organized as a non-profit corporation for the purpose of promoting the health, safety and welfare of the Owners of Unit Estates in the Property as more fully set forth in Article VI of the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation.

Section 2. Subject to the provisions of the Declaration and to the extent permitted by law, the Corporation may participate in mergers and consolidations with other nonprofit corporations organized for the same purposes, provided that any such merger or consolidation shall have the assent of two-thirds in interest of members who are voting in person or by proxy at a meeting duly called for this purpose and at which a quorum is present, written notice of which shall be mailed to all members not more than thirty (30) days or less than ten (10) days in advance and shall set forth the purpose of the meeting.

ARTICLE VII

Board of Directors

Section 1. The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by a board of not less than three (3) nor more than five (5) directors, who need not be members of the Corporation. The initial Board of Directors shall consist of three (3) persons designated by the declarant as defined in the Declaration. Their successors shall serve upon election by the members for the terms stated in Article VII of the Articles of Incorporation for the Corporation. Beginning with the first annual meeting to be held on the third Tuesday of May, 1981, the members, at each annual meeting, shall elect not less than three (3) nor more than five (5) directors to serve for a term of one year.

Section 2. Except as provided for in Section 3 of this Article with respect to the removal of Directors, vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be filled by the majority of the remaining directors, any such appointed director to hold office until his successor is elected by the members, who may make such election at the next annual meeting of the members or at any special meeting duly called for that purpose.

Section 3. At any regular meeting or special meeting duly called, any one or more of the Directors may be removed with or without cause by a majority of the Owners voting in person or by proxy and a successor may then and there be elected to fill the vacancy thus created. Any Director whose removal has been proposed by the Owners shall be given an opportunity to be heard at the meeting.

ARTICLE VIII

Election of Directors

EXHIBIT B

Section 1. Election of the Board of Directors shall be by secret ballot. At such elections, the members or their proxies may cast, in respect to each vacancy, as many votes as they are entitled to exercise under the provisions of the Declaration. The names receiving the largest numbers of votes shall be elected.

Section 2. Nominations for election to the Board of Directors shall be made by a nominating committee.

Section 3. The nominating committee shall consist of a chairman, who shall be a member of the Board of Directors, and two or more members of the Corporation. The nominating committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors prior to each annual meeting of the members, to serve from the close of such annual meeting until the close of the next annual meeting, and such appointment shall be announced at each such annual meeting.

ARTICLE IX

Powers and Duties of the Board of Directors

Section 1. The Board of Directors shall have power:

(i) to call special meetings of the members whenever it deems necessary and it shall call a meeting at any time upon written request of one-fourth (1/4th) of the voting membership.

(ii) to appoint and remove, at its pleasure, all officers, agents and employees of the Corporation, prescribe their duties, fix their compensation, and require of them such security or fidelity bond as it may deem expedient. Nothing contained in these By-laws shall be construed to prohibit the employment of any member, officer or director of the Corporation in any capacity whatsoever.

(iii) to establish, levy, assess, and collect the assessments or charges referred to herein or in the Articles of Incorporation or Declaration.

(iv) to adopt and publish rules and regulations covering the use of Common Elements and the personal conduct of the members and their guests or tenants thereon.

(v) to exercise for the Corporation all powers, duties and authority vested in or delegated to the Corporation, except those reserved to the members in the Declaration;

(vi) to authorize the officers to enter into contracts with or to terminate or dismiss third parties, in carrying out the purposes of the Corporation and in effectuating the best interest of the owners of Units with respect to the operation and maintenance of facilities, grounds and other Common Elements, specifically including contracts for the sharing of expense of maintenance of grounds and facilities with adjoining land owners, involving the use of such facilities by third parties, when deemed necessary or appropriate in the discretion of the Board.

(vii) in the event that any member of the Board of Directors shall be absent from three (3) consecutive regular meetings of the Board of Directors, the Board may, by action taken at the meeting during which said third absence occurs, declare the office of said director to be vacant.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors:

(i) to cause to be kept a complete record of all its acts and corporate affairs and to present a statement thereof to the members at the annual meeting of the members or at any special meeting when such is requested in writing by one-fourth (1/4th) of the voting membership.

(ii) in the event the Board receives notice that Federal Home Loan Mortgage Company ("FHLMC") becomes the owner of a mortgage on a Unit, the Board shall give notice in writing to the person designated by FHLMC of any loss to, or taking of, the Common Elements of the Property, if such loss or taking exceeds $10,000.00, or damage to an individual Unit covered by a mortgage owned in whole or in part by FHLMC, if such damage exceeds $1,000.00.

(iii) to supervise all officers, agents and employees of the Corporation and see that their duties are properly performed.

(iv) as more fully provided in Articles XVI and XVII of the Declaration:

a. To fix the amount of the assessment against each Unit Estate for each assessment period;

b. To prepare a roster of the Unit Estates and the assessments applicable thereto which shall be kept in the office of the Corporation and shall be open to inspection by any member; and

c. To send written notice of each assessment to every Owner of the Unit Estate subject thereto.

(v) to issue, or to cause an appropriate officer to issue, upon demand by any Unit Owner, mortgagee or prospective mortgagee of a Unit Estate, a certificate setting forth whether any assessment has been paid. Such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the payment or lack of payment of any assessment therein stated to have been paid or unpaid.

(vi) to review annually the limits of coverage of insurance policies for the Property.

ARTICLE X

Directors' Meetings

Section 1. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held on the first Tuesday of each month at 8:00 p.m., provided, that the Board of Directors may, by resolution, change the day and hour of the holding of such regular meeting.

Section 2. Notice of such regular meeting is hereby dispensed with. If the day for the regular meeting shall fall upon a holiday, the meeting shall be held on the same hour on the first date following which is not a holiday, and no notice thereof need be given.

Section 3. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held when called by any officer of the Corporation or by any two directors, after not less than three (3) days notice to each director.

Section 4. The transaction of any business at any meeting of the Board of Directors, however called or wherever held, shall be as valid as though made in a meeting duly held after regular call and notice if (i) a quorum is present, and, (ii) either before or after the meeting, each of the directors not present signs a written waiver of notice, or a consent to the holding of such meeting, or any approval of the minutes thereof. All such waivers, consents, or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records and made part of the minutes of the meeting.

Section 5. A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum thereof.

Section 6. Any action which could be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken by a written Memorandum and Record of Action signed by all the directors and filed with the corporate records and made part of the corporate minutes.

ARTICLE XI

Officers

Section 1. The officers of the Corporation shall be a president, vice president, a secretary, a treasurer, and such officers or assistants as the Board of Directors may deem desirable. More than one office may be held by the same person; provided, however, that the offices of president and vice president or president and secretary shall not be held by the same person; provided further, that neither the president nor vice president shall also hold the office of treasurer. The president and the vice president shall be members of the Board of Directors.

Section 2. The officers shall be chosen by a majority vote of the directors.

Section 3. All officers shall hold office during the pleasure of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. The president shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and all meetings of the Unit Owners, shall see that orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried out and sign all notes, checks in excess of $1,000.00, leases, deeds and all other written instruments to be executed by the Corporation.

Section 5. The vice president shall perform the duties of the president in the president's absence.

Section 6. The secretary shall be ex-officio the secretary of the Board of Directors and shall record the votes and keep the minutes of all proceedings in a book to be kept for that purpose. The secretary shall also keep the records of the Corporation. He shall record in a book kept for that purpose the names of all members of the Corporation together with their address, as registered by such members.

Section 7. The treasurer shall receive and deposit in appropriate bank accounts all the monies of the Corporation and shall disburse such funds as directed by resolution of the Board of the Directors, provided, however, that a resolution of the Board of Directors shall not be necessary for disbursements made in the ordinary course of business conducted within the limits of a budget adopted by the Board. The treasurer shall sign all checks and notes of the Corporation, provided, that such checks and notes in excess of $1,000.00 shall also be signed by the president or vice president.

EXHIBIT B

UNOFFICIAL

Section 8. The treasurer shall keep proper books of account and cause an annual audit of the Corporation books to be made by a certified public accountant at the completion of each fiscal year. He shall prepare an annual budget and an annual balance sheet statement, and the budget and balance sheet statement shall be presented to the membership at its regular annual meeting.

ARTICLE XII

Meetings of Members

Section 1. The regular annual meeting of the members shall be held on the third Tuesday in May, at the hour of 8:00 p.m. If the date of the annual meeting of the members shall fall upon a holiday, the meeting will be held at the same hour on the first day following which is not a holiday.

Section 2. Special meetings of the members for any purpose may be called at any time by the president, vice president, secretary or the treasurer, or by any two or more members of the Board, or upon the written request of the members who have a right to vote one-fourth (1/4th) in interest of the votes of the entire membership.

Section 3. Notice of any meeting shall be given by the secretary to the members and to the holder of a first mortgage on any Unit which shall be entitled to send a representative to attend such meetings. Notice may be given to the member either personally, or by sending a copy of the notice through the mail, postage prepaid, to his address appearing on the books of the Corporation. Each member shall register his address with the secretary and notices of meetings shall be mailed to him at such address. Notice of any meeting, regular or special, shall be mailed at least six (6) days in advance of the meeting and shall set forth in general the nature of the business to be transacted, provided, however, that if the business of any meeting shall involve an election of the Board of Directors, or any member thereof, or any action governed by the Articles of Incorporation or by the Declaration, notice of such meeting shall be given or sent to each member as herein provided, but at least ten (10) days but not more than thirty (30) days in advance of such meeting.

Section 4. The presence at the meeting of members entitled to cast, or of proxies entitled to cast, two-thirds in interest of the votes of the membership shall constitute a quorum for any action governed by these By-laws. Any action governed by the Articles of Incorporation or by the Declaration applicable to the Property shall require a quorum as therein provided.

Section 5. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein or in the Declaration or by law with respect to specific matters, the vote at any meeting of a majority of the aggregate interest in the Common Elements shall be necessary.

EXHIBIT B

ARTICLE XIII

Proxies

Section 1. At all corporate meetings of members each member may vote either in person or by proxy.

Section 2. All proxies shall be in writing and filed with the secretary. No proxy shall extend beyond a period of eleven (11) months and every proxy shall automatically cease upon sale by the member of his Unit Estate or other interest in the Properties.

ARTICLE XIV

Books and Papers

Section 1. The books, records and papers of the Corporation shall at all times during reasonable business hours be subject to inspection by any member and by any first lien mortgagee.

ARTICLE XV

Corporate Seal

Section 1. The Corporation shall have a seal in circular form, having within its circumference the name of the corporation, the words "Corporate Seal", and the word "Oklahoma".

ARTICLE XVI

Amendments

Section 1. These By-laws may be amended, at a regular or special meeting of the members, by a vote of seventy-five percent (75%) of the aggregate interest in the Common Elements, and by setting forth said amendments in an amended Declaration, duly recorded, provided that those provisions of these By-laws which are governed by the Articles of the Corporation may not be amended except as provided in the Articles of Incorporation or applicable law; and provided further, that any matter stated herein to be or which is in fact governed by the Declaration may not be amended except as provided in the Declaration.

Section 2. In the case of any conflict between the Articles of Incorporation and these By-laws, the Articles of Incorporation shall control; in the case of any conflict between the Declaration and these By-laws the Declaration shall control.

ARTICLE XVII

Indemnification of Officers and Directors

Section 1. Each officer or director of this Association, including his heirs and administrators, made a party to any action, suit or proceeding or against whom a claim or liability is threatened, asserted or commenced by reason of the fact that he was or is an officer or director of the Association, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Association against all judgments, fines, amounts paid on account thereof (whether in settlement or otherwise) and reimbursed for all expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense of action, suit, proceeding, or claim, whether or not the same proceeds to judgment or is settled or otherwise brought to a conclusion, provided that no person shall be indemnified or reimbursed for costs or expenses arising out of the person's dishonesty to the Association, his willful malfeasance or his gross and reckless disregard of duty.

Section 2. The indemnification provided under Section 1 above is not exclusive but, in addition, any person who is or was an officer or director of the Association shall be entitled to all reimbursement and indemnity provided by or under 18 O.S. §1.43a as now in effect or as hereafter amended.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we, being all the Directors of Two-Forty Place, Inc., have hereunto set our hands this _____ day of _____, 19___.
