ONE SPECIAL MEAL

Weekly Reflection by Fr. Michael

Thanksgiving would probably be the one meal a year to which most everyone in this country has a connection. The date is set. The traditional menu is common knowledge. Its origin is connected to our national history. Each person has traditions and memories attached to the day. Remember the Thanksgiving of 1989 when most dinners were cancelled or modified because of the snow! There are not too many things to which everyone has a common connection, but Thanksgiving Day is one of those times.

Yet, in spite of the common bonds that unite, there can still be tremendous diversity in how this day is experienced. For some it is a day when family from near and far gather together. There are others who may be alone. There may be times when people are celebrating happy moments in their lives. There are others who may be facing hard times or uncertainty. There may be some who delight in orchestrating a culinary extravaganza. There may be others who are frequently calling the Butterball Hotline in a panic. (By the way, that number is 800 288 8372. We try to be a full-service parish that provides this vital information. 😊) Some people have to work. Some may be separated from family. Some may be in hospitals or other institutions. There is no one definitively correct way for this day to unfold.

Jesus understood very well the power and potential of a meal. There are miracle stories of Jesus feeding a multitude. He often breaks bread with his disciples and others. Food is a common topic found throughout scripture. A meal is common ground. Sooner or later, everyone gets hungry. The experience of needing to nourish the body is universal. Having a satisfying meal can change the heart of even the most grumpy person. I once heard a suggestion that peace talks or other important negotiations would be much more effective if they take place around a table. Those who have opposing views cannot withdraw to neutral corners when mealtime comes. Bread needs to be broken and shared with all who are there.

Needless to say, the connections to Eucharist are plentiful. Jesus was intentional and deliberate when he gathered with his disciples for the last supper. It is a simple meal, but it has tremendous power to unite us to one another and bring us in union with our God. We witness this regularly. On any given Sunday we will gather between 800 – 1,000 people for our Masses. It is unlikely that we would all agree on any given topic. But yet when we gather around the altar, those differences are put aside. We focus on the precious gift of the Eucharist that is offered to all of us and truly unites us.

I pray you have a blessed Thanksgiving however it may unfold. We could all come up with a list of issues in our world and in our lives we wish were different. In spite of those ideals we long for, we need to look around us and be grateful for what we have. A spirit of gratitude is the first step we take in finding peace in our life. May we be filled with gratitude for all we have. God abundantly blesses us. A blessed Thanksgiving to all.

Coping with Grief During the Holidays

St. Joseph Villa – Hampton Bays

Friday – Sunday, December 11-13, 2026

Arrival after 3pm Friday ending by 12 noon Sunday

Presenters: Sr. Josephine Daspro, CSJ, D.Min. & Jo-Andrew D'Alessandro-Accary

The holiday season can be especially hard for those of us who are grieving loss, change, and the death of a loved one. We can have heightened feelings of loss, isolation and sadness due to unrealized expectations of joy that seem to surround us this time of year. Triggers such as music, food and decorations can make it difficult. Family and friends getting together to celebrate can put pressure on us to engage socially. Memories of prior holidays can invade our thoughts and cause a greater sense of loss. How can we navigate the holidays in a way that honors our memories and creates safe spaces to deal with our emotions.

Draw comfort from prayer, reflection/meditation, presentation materials, handouts, journaling, sharing and sacred rituals.

Offering: $250.00

$50 non-refundable deposit with registration.

Please make checks payable to Sisters of St. Joseph

Be an Angel this Christmas!

ANGEL TAGS are available this weekend, Nov. 21 & 22, in the COLOR–CODED baskets in the Atrium

BLUE — Families of the Holy Cross Outreach Program

Once again, we are requesting gift cards for both clothing and toys for the households in our area that Outreach assists.
Therefore, the BLUE TAGS have requests for a store gift card on them.
We encourage you to consider providing a holiday gift card so that our neighbors are able to purchase the items that best fulfill their family's needs.

RED — Our friends at Olsen's Rest Home

The RED TAGS have a gift listed on the tag, but please DO NOT WRAP the gift, just attach the angel tag to the top of the package.

PURPLE — Talbot House – the Catholic Charities crisis center for those struggling with addiction

The PURPLE TAGS have a request for a store gift card, but please DO NOT WRAP the gift card, just attach the angel tag to the gift card when dropping off.

GREEN — Items for children in the Brentwood area serviced by Pronto

The GREEN TAGS have a request for sweatshirts and sweatpants, for children ages 5 to 17, but please DO NOT WRAP the item, just attach the angel tag to the item when dropping off.

ORANGE — Mercy Haven – an organization that provides community residence housing for those living with mental illness

The ORANGE TAGS have a request for a store gift card, but please DO NOT WRAP the gift card, just attach the angel tag to the gift card when dropping off.

PINK — Supermarket cards will enable a family to have a special meal, gas cards allow for a family to visit doctors, and drugstore cards allow a family to buy medicine.

When you purchase a gift card, please put the gift amount on the gift card or the envelope.

This information is needed so Parish Outreach can distribute the cards equally.

Please put the gift card in an envelope and place it in the GIFT BOX on the table near our Angel signs.

Please do not wrap gift items or gift cards.

This makes it easier on sorting day to count and distribute to the agencies.

Thank you in advance for your understanding.

Gifts and gift cards can be returned on the weekends at Mass or dropped off during the week at the Parish Office.

PLEASE NOTE: Sunday, December 6th, is the last day to return gifts and gift cards.

FAITH & WORKS

Practice of Faith & Charity

(Excerpt from "At Home with the Word 2026")

The Judgement of the Nations is perhaps one of the punchiest parts of the Gospel, and holds a very stark lens to our practices of faith and charity. Jesus is explicit about what we are asked to do as Christians, and what the consequences will be if we fail to do so. On this solemnity of Christ the King, as we stand on the precipice of a new liturgical year, we ask ourselves: in this new season, how will we care for the least of these, as Christ asks of us?

Consider making a "New Liturgical Year's Resolution" as Advent begins next week. How might you live out the works of mercy more fully?

Reflect on the parameters Jesus itemizes in this Gospel (which are the foundation of the Corporal Works of Mercy). Which resonate with you? Which might be challenging for you?

Research organizations and ministries near you that attend to these criteria (the Works of Mercy). In what ways can you stretch yourself to serve or get more involved?

Your kindness and generosity are appreciated in support of our parish and its ministries.
We are offering the opportunity to sign up for automated giving if you have not already done so.
