I felt very grounded and connected as I read Marianne's poetry, I laughed, I cried, I read with wonder. I was transported to other places while at the same time connected to some of my past experiences and relationships. This is a beautiful collection of poems that capture sights, sounds, feelings, relationships, and tell stories, as Marianne shares what has shaped and created her on her life journey. I highly recommend altar to an unknown god.