Your Facility Could Close by Year-End
I'm currently working with a qualified buyer who wants to close on a self-storage facility before December 31. If you've ever thought about selling, this may be the right time.
To help you decide, I'm offering a free, no-obligation Broker Price Opinion on your facility. It's confidential, with no pressure and no commitment.
Please give me a call. I'd be glad to talk.
