Words from Pastor

Dear Church Family,

Blessings in the name of Jesus.
Hopefully this will be the first of many newsletters.

I'm excited as we transition from Thanksgiving into the Season of Advent. It's important that we continue our feelings of gratitude as we move toward the Christmas Season.

There are several upcoming events on the horizon prior to the calendar turning to 2027. As exciting as these events are, I would like us to take some time and prepare our hearts and minds for the coming days. I encourage you to be present in the moment. Don't get caught up in rushing around and stressful feelings this season may bring others.

Please, over the coming days and weeks, as you gather with family and friends to share and celebrate remember the "Reason for the season". Please make an effort to set aside time daily for reflection, gratitude and time with God. We'll truly be surprised at how much more meaningful this Advent Season can be.

As you may know, the Advent Season is not just a countdown to Christmas, but is so much more than that. Advent is meant to be a celebration and remembrance that we as Christians use to celebrate the birth of Christ and look forward to His second coming.

I pray that we take the opportunity these next few weeks to draw closer to God in our personal relationship with our Creator and Heavenly Father.

May God Bless Us All,

Pastor Houston

A Season of Hope & Joy

May the peace of Christ fill your heart this Christmas season and always.
