Where in the World...

A woman in India had a lucky near-miss when she reached into a bag of rice and found a venomous cobra. Sagarika Sundaray said she put her hand in the bag at her home in Bhubaneswar, India and quickly pulled it back out when she felt something cold moving inside the bag. It turned out to be a baby cobra! She decided to contact the local Snake Helpline. The trapper arrived to find the snake hiding in the cup used for scooping the rice. Malik released the cobra out of town and stated that the encounter could have been fatal. "Baby cobras have a fully grown venom apparatus and can kill humans with their bite. She was lucky to escape."

How's it Possible...

Walter Walker & Spa looks like a huge bathtub that has a moving surface at the bottom for walking and running. It's the perfect machine for those recovering from injuries; it reduces the amount of pressure put on the body during cardio. It helps strengthen muscles and burn excess fat through aerobic exercises. It also functions as an amazing spa bath, so you can relax after your workout.

When Did That Happen...

Before the Declaration of Independence was even signed, John Adams envisioned fireworks as part of the festivities. In a letter to Abagail Adams in 1776, he wrote that the occasion should be honored with parade, games, guns, bells, bonfires and illuminations from one end of this continent to the other from this time forward forever more. The first independence day fireworks were set off on July 4, 1777.

Who Knows...

1. What starts with the letter "t", is filled with "t" and ends in "t"?
2. What gets wetter and wetter the more it dries?
3. Two mothers and two daughters went out to eat, everyone ate one burger, yet only three burgers were eaten in all. How is this possible?

That's Incredible!

Michael Furrh, of Fort Worth, Texas, holds the world record for the longest "usable" golf club, which is 9.29 meters long (about 30.5 feet!). This is Michael's fourth time breaking the record. This time, he broke his previous record by over 2 feet. Michael uses the club for trick shots at events and fundraisers for local charities. In the last three years, he raised over $50,000.

That's Trendy!

A few years ago, pale mint and lavender might have felt toothache-sweet. But in 2018, we're seeing Easter-egg hues everywhere, from powder blue to chiffon yellow and creamsicle orange. Women are reclaiming these "girly" colors at a time when head-to-toe black doesn't feel quite right; find your new favorite shades and flaunt them.

That's Funny!

I took part in the sun-tanning olympics - but I only got bronze.

When do you go at red, and stop at green?
-When you're eating a watermelon

What did one wall say to the other wall?
-We'll meet at the corner

That's Twisted!

I saw Suzie sitting in a shoe shine shop where she sits she shines, and where she shines she sits.

That's Inspirational!

Your mind knows only some things. Your inner voice, your instinct knows everything. If you listen to what you know instinctively, it will always lead you down the right path. -Henry Winkler
