CAMBRIDGE, Mass. – Thirty-one conference all-stars representing 17 schools from the five New England Division II and III football playing conferences have been selected to the 2026 New England Football Writers Association All-New England team. The team, selected by a committee of media relations representatives from the five conferences, honors the best Division II and III players by position in New England from the 2026 season.

The Division II Northeast 10 leads the team with twelve players selected. The Conference of New England has six picks while the New England Women's & Men's Athletic Conference and the New England Small College Athletic Conference have five each. The Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference has three honorees.

Conference of New England titlist Endicott College and Northeast 10 champion Assumption University lead the team with four selections each. American International College has three. NESCAC Co-Champion Trinity College, Bentley University, Franklin Pierce University, Springfield College, UMass Dartmouth and Williams College each have two players selected. Additional players chosen are from Bowdoin College, Bridgewater State University, New England College, Post University, Salve Regina University, the United State Coast Guard Academy, The University of New England and WPI.

The team will be honored at the New England Football Writers Captains and Awards Banquet on Thursday, December 10, at the Sheraton Framingham Hotel and Conference Center. Reservations must be made no later than Friday, December 4 at 5:00PM, and may be made at https://newenglandfootballwriters.com/captains-%26-awards-banquet. Tickets are $80/person. Reservations are made on-line only and are non-refundable. The banquet is open to anyone that wishes to attend. All attendees, including award recipients, are expected to make a paid reservation.
