xTech|Disrupt Endurance Winners — AUSA 2026

Five winners, $100,000 each, for soldier and platform power generation and storage. Award condition: register solutions in the Army API Marketplace within 30 days.

Company	Headquarters	Website	Contact	Solution / Notes
Chariot Defense	South San Francisco, CA	www.chariotdefense.com	Adam Warmoth, Founder & CEO Media: McKenzie@ArvoAdvisory.com LinkedIn: linkedin.com/company/chariotdefense	Amphora hybrid power system for battlefield power distribution and storage. Raised $34M Series A (a16z-led), Feb 2026.
Harbinger Praesidia (defense unit of Harbinger Motors)	Garden Grove, CA	harbingermotors.com	John Harris, Co-Founder & CEO Media: Kylee Keskerian, PR Mgr — kylee@futuristacommunications.com	Uncrewed hybrid-electric military vehicle platforms; shown with American Rheinmetall at AUSA 2026.
Our Next Energy Inc. (ONE)	45145 W. 12 Mile Rd, Novi, MI 48377	one.ai	Media: Matt Irish — matt.irish@one.ai	Core 40 High-Power LFP battery — 100% US-manufactured, cell materials through BMS and enclosure.
PacMar Technologies	700 Bishop St, Ste 1880, Honolulu, HI 96813 (also ME, RI, KS)	pacmartech.com	Phone: 808-695-6643 contact@pacmartech.com No named contact published	Hawaii-based engineering/prototyping firm (marine & energy systems).
United Protective Technologies LLC	142 Cara Ct, Locust, NC 28097	upt-usa.com	Phone: (704) 888-2470 No named contact or email published	Advanced coatings and surface-engineering for ruggedized military hardware.

Sources: xtech.army.mil award announcement; company websites and press releases. Contacts are publicly listed info as of Oct 21, 2026 — verify before outreach.