2023 Spring Auction

At: La FMHS Biblioteca Bistro
Thursday, May 18th, 6:30 – 8:30

Dear Donor:

Frank McCourt High School is a small public high school located on 84th Street between Columbus and Amsterdam Avenues. Named for the bestselling author and educator, FMHS serves a diverse community from all boroughs of NYC.

Our school has BIG needs, but limited capacity for family donations. WE NEED YOUR HELP!

Enclosed is a donation form and hope that you will partner with us in supporting public education. The funds raised go directly to helping our kids succeed and provide much needed resources for both students and teachers, including professional development, a 9th grade team building trip, college visits for 10th and 11th grade students, aid for graduation and senior activities, technology and supplies for our science and math programs as well as funding for our students' club activities.

Every donation truly makes a difference! You can donate goods and/or services for our Auction or make a cash donation to help us achieve our goal.

In acknowledgement of your gift, we will recognize your business in our auction emails, in our catalog and will display your logo on our auction webpage. McCourt families love to patronize the businesses that support us! Your donation truly makes a difference for our small, public high school.

On behalf of our kids, parents, teachers and administration, thank you in advance for your support!

Sincerely,

FMHS PA Auction Team
