Executive Coach, MBA, MSc Coaching & Behaviour Change

I'm a People and Change Consultant, Executive Coach and Mediator who helps individuals and organisations define and achieve success.

I've a wealth of experience gained with KPMG, one of the largest global networks of professional services firms, where I spent over 24 years, including 10 years as an equity partner.

Starting out in Management Consulting, I moved on to hold senior People, Performance and Culture related roles in the UK and China where I was Partner in Charge of the firm's "Employer of Choice" agenda and responsible for establishing HR Shared Services; latterly leading on Innovation and Knowledge Management for KPMG Advisory across Europe and Risk Consulting in the UK.

I've led individuals and teams through personal and organisational change, created an Innovation Academy and delivered conference speeches, innovation and change events to groups of up to 2,000 people around the world at locations including Brazil, Malaysia, Singapore and South Africa.

When we work together as coach and coachee, I tailor my approach with the objective of helping you to achieve moments of insight; to help you move into a space where your world turns in such a way as to reveal new meaning and new perspectives on life and the challenges you are facing.

I combine my professional and life experience with an eclectic approach to coaching; you are at the centre of the coaching relationship. Some of it's about the quality of the conversation, and some of it's about bringing a range of tools and techniques to the table when I sense that they will be of help to you.
