

WOOD

Report: Rep. allowed to keep grants despite conflicting applications

Katie Rosendale

Sun, April 14, 2024 at 7:03 PM EDT · 1 min read

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (WOOD) — Michigan Rep. Kristian Grant, D-Grand Rapids, was allowed to keep $15,000 in COVID-19 funds for small businesses even though officials later found conflicting information in her applications, The Detroit News reports.

Grant created seven new businesses during the pandemic and received two small business grants in 2020 from Kent County for a total of $15,000, according to a Saturday report from The Detroit News.

