Jesus said, "He that believeth in Me, the works that I do shall he do also." What is it? It's God in the Church in these five predestinated offices, backing up every Word that He said with the Holy Spirit Himself in there, which is the Word made manifest, proving His resurrection, proving that He lives. All other religions are dead, their forms are dead, there's only one that's right, and that's Christianity, because Christ is living in the Church of Christ, amen, making His Words manifest, for He is the same.

WELCOME TO OUR NOVEMBER NEWSLETTER

Dear Readers,

Welcome to our November Newsletter! As we reflect on this past month, our hearts are filled with gratitude for all that the Lord has done among His people. Our Annual Meetings were a truly blessed time of worship, fellowship, powerful preaching, and the Holy Spirit moving among us.

Throughout the meetings, we heard so many powerful testimonies of God's faithfulness and His work in the lives of His people. Hearts were encouraged, faith was strengthened, and we experienced a special time of refreshing, renewal, and restoration.

"Restoration Is On!" was more than a theme; it was something we witnessed throughout our time together. God continues to restore, strengthen, and revive His Church, and we are thankful for every testimony of His goodness.

In this issue, you will find testimonies, highlights, photos, and special moments from our Annual Meetings, along with updates from our church family. We pray that these stories will encourage your faith and remind you that the Spirit of God is still moving in our midst.

Thank you for being a valued part of the Open Door Community Tabernacle family. May we continue to hold fast to the Word, walk in faith, and believe for all that God has ahead.

The Spirit of God is moving in our midst!
Restoration is on!

Yours truly,
ODCT News Team

TESTIMONIAL

BRO. LUIZ BOMBONATTI A Testimony of God's Confirmation

Our dear Brother Luiz had a strong desire to travel to Arkansas for the meetings. However, because of his daughter's health concerns, he was hesitant to make the trip. He wanted to remain available in case the doctor had any updates regarding her condition.

Although his heart was set on going, he was uncertain about what to do. One day, Brother Nauly asked him, "Brother, are you going to Arkansas?" Brother Luiz replied, "I want to brother, but I'm not sure yet. I'll keep you posted." Not long after that, Brother Luiz had a very interesting dream. Within the dream, he was dreaming, and within that dream, Brother Nauly was preaching. He heard him say: "As coffee becomes a stimulant to people naturally, so shall the Holy Spirit be to the Bride."

When Brother Luiz awoke, he heard a voice say: "When you hear my ministry speaking about coffee, that is a sign for you to go to Arkansas." He began questioning what he had heard. Why coffee? He loved coffee and drank it every day, so perhaps he was simply tired or had been thinking about it.

When Sunday service came, he listened attentively, waiting to hear whether coffee would be mentioned during the preaching. However, there was no mention of coffee. As the Arkansas meetings drew closer, another service passed, and still, there was no mention of coffee. Eventually, Brother Luiz told his wife and daughter, "I'm going to let Brother Nauly know that I'm not going to Arkansas."

But his daughter encouraged him, saying, "No, Dad, wait. You don't know what could happen, just wait." Then came the final Sunday before the Arkansas meetings. As the bible study service was coming to an end, Brother Luiz was outside the sanctuary coming up the stairs, greeting the brothers when he suddenly heard Brother Edmond speaking through the speakers, saying the word COFFEE, and there it was. He immediately turned to the brothers standing nearby and asked, "Did you hear that? Did he just say coffee?" The brothers confirmed that they had heard it too.

At that moment, Brother Luiz knew that this was the sign he had been waiting for. With great excitement, he declared, "Wow! That's my sign to go to Arkansas!"

And there he went, what a blessing it was! During the prayer line that Saturday night in Arkansas, Brother Luiz had one specific prayer request: his daughter's health. He believed that the Lord heard and answered his prayer. But the testimony doesn't end there! The Lord has continued to work, and now Brother Luiz is sending his daughter to the Houston Revival to give God praise for what He has done.

THE FULL ARMOUR OF GOD

On Thursday, November 5th, Br. Edmond took us to Ephesians 6:10–18 and reminded us who our real enemy is. "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world." The battle is not with a brother, a sister, or the pastor. When we believe this Message, there are spirits that we cannot see that are set against us.

To help us picture each piece, Br. Edmond used the pamphlet The Armor of God (Rose Publishing, by Timothy Paul Jones), which describes the Roman soldier that Paul had in mind:

The Belt of Truth: The leather belt was the first thing a soldier put on before battle. It held his garments out of the way so he was ready to fight. For us, it means being ready to tell people why we believe, and living with integrity.

The Breastplate of Righteousness: It covered the heart and lungs, where one arrow could be fatal. We don't earn this righteousness by good deeds. It is Christ's, given to us by faith.

Feet Shod with the Gospel of Peace: Roman sandals had hobnails in the soles so the soldier could stand firm without slipping. The gospel gives us that kind of footing, and it also means peace and unity among believers.

Brother Branham taught that the armour of God is the Holy Ghost Himself: the Word, the promise, and the power to sling it. As he said, "His army is all dressed with the ever presence of Himself in there going with us." God's army has its commanding officers in the fivefold ministry. Like the centurions with their plumes, they are easy to recognize, and a trained soldier respects them.

That is why Br. Edmond told us to go back to our basic training. A trained soldier knows his position. He doesn't waste the battle fighting among his own. Some go into the field, some pray for the ones who go, and some handle supplies so everything is ready when the others arrive. "We also keep "praying always," and that means forgiving and praying even for those who don't like us. As a missionary church preparing to go to Houston and beyond, may we put on the whole armour every day and be found standing when the count is over.
