

CNO and Mrs. Gilday lean, learn, and listen!

Why we all WIN when we celebrate women in the Navy (WIN)

Wow, Just WOW!

Again, this community's SUPER POWER and the reason we attract the BEST OF THE BEST is because we are "self identified learning leaders!"

We tackle the toughest of DEI issues in our Navy work space by showing up, ready to learn.

CNO Gilday and Mrs. Gilday leaned in BIG TIME to listen, learn, and share with us their deliberate efforts in this space: How do we recruit, and then manage this diverse talent? When do we sacrifice, and when do we support? When do we lead/lag and when do we seek balance? Institutionally, how do we move the needle?

Special guest Master Chief Petty Officer Of the Navy, MCPON Russ Smith, joined in to offer direct answers to some of the tougher policy questions.

Listen to us untangle these questions and MORE! Link here.

CNO invited us to email your questions directly to him: michael.gilday@navy.mil

Mrs. Gilday invited us to share any recommendations for the WIN room, WIN e-book or WIN Wednesday tributes: Email the CNO's PAO at rachel.maul@navy.mil.
