SnugBug Ministry presents:

Lambchops

The Beginning

Nichelle Lee Translation

Author's Note

The Lambchop series was created as the first glimpse for newborn babies through four years of age.

This series begins the journey through the Bible by teaching the first four chapters of the Bible.

Creation
Adam and Eve
The Fall
Cain and Abel

We at Snugbug Ministry believe that repetition leads to remembrance.

Scripture says:

"Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it."

Proverbs 22:6

Lambchops

Introduction

Yeshua

Before Yeshua arrived to save the world, if people did bad things they had to take a lamb to the temple and it was never seen again.

But now…

Yeshua, the son of God, was sent to the world so that when people do bad things they no longer have to take a lamb to the temple because Yeshua became the lamb.

So when you accept Yeshua, you save a lamb.

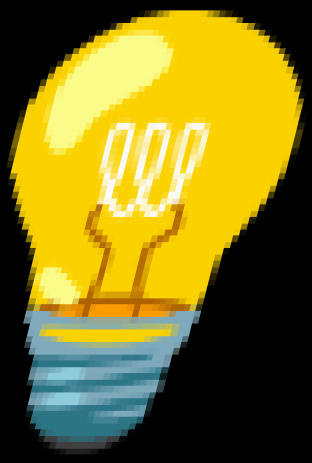
Lambchops
Book One

In the beginning God created
Heaven and Earth.

The earth had no shape and everywhere there was darkness.

Water was everywhere and the spirit of God was there.

God first made light to shine in the darkness.



God looked at the light and he was happy.

He did this on day one.

Next God made the sky.

God made a line between the water in the sky and the water on the earth.

God looked at everything he made on this day and he was happy.

He did this on day two.

After making the sky God made the land come out of the water.

He planted trees and plants in the land.

These plants and trees would later produce food.

God looked at everything he made on this day and he was happy.

He did all this on day three.

God created the sun and the moon and the stars.

God made these for us to count days and years and seasons.

God looked at everything he made on this day and he was happy.

He did all this on day four.

Now God was ready to fill the earth.

He made fish to swim in the water.

And birds in the sky.

God looked at everything he made on this day and he was happy.

He did all this on day five.

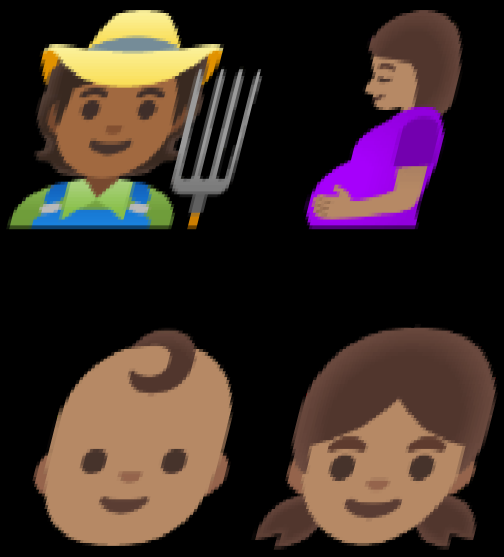
Next God made all of the animals.

He made bugs and insects!

God also made people!

God told the people he made to work and have children so that the earth would be filled with more people.



God also made food for the people to eat.

God looked at everything he made on this day and he was very happy.

He did all this on day six.

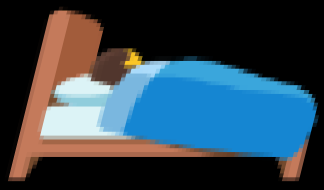
After God made everything he was tired.

So God went to sleep.



He did this on day seven.

And God blessed the seventh day and called it holy.

Because this was the day that he rested from all of his work.

Book Two

On day 3 God planted seeds to make trees and plants.

But none of the plants and trees had grown because it had not rained yet.

Also there weren't any people yet to farm the land.

So God made water to come up from the ground to water the land.

From the dust of the ground God made a man.

His name was Adam.

Then God breathed air into Adam's nose so that he could begin breathing.

Adam was alive!

God then planted a beautiful garden in the land of Eden.

The garden had beautiful trees that made tasty fruit.

In the middle of the garden God placed two different trees.

One tree was called the tree of life.

This tree made people live forever and ever!

The other tree was the tree of knowledge.

This tree made people know everything, both good and bad!

God put Adam into the garden so he could take care of it and watch over it.

God told Adam that he could eat fruit from any of the trees in the garden.

Except for the tree of knowledge!

God warned Adam if he ate from the tree of knowledge he would die.

So Adam began working in the garden keeping it beautiful and safe.

After some time God saw that it was not good that Adam was alone.

God wanted Adam to have a helper.

Someone Adam could talk to and have fun with.

So God formed from the ground
all the birds and animals.

And brought them to Adam so he could name them.

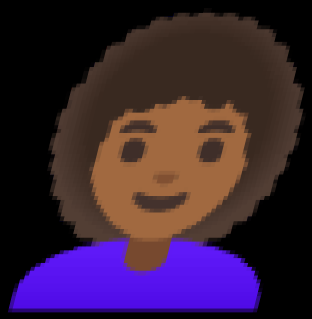
But none of them were good enough to be a helper for Adam.

So God made Adam fall into a deep sleep.

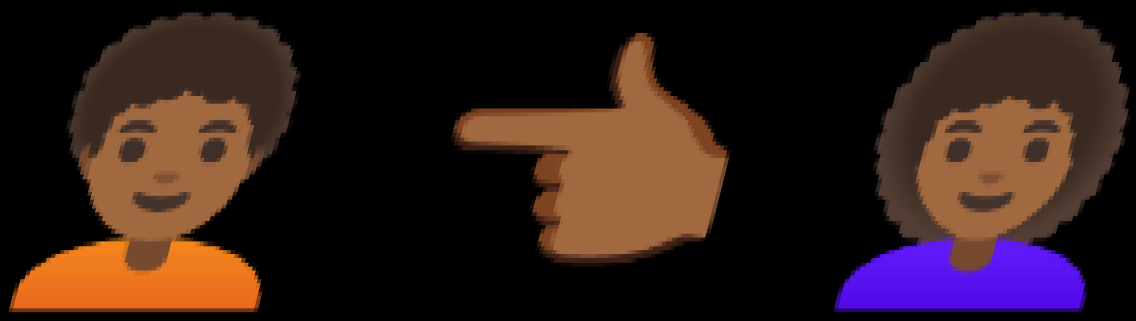
While Adam was asleep God took out one of Adam's ribs from inside of his body.

God then made a woman out of the rib he took from Adam.



And she was beautiful and perfect!

God brought the woman to Adam.



Adam was so happy to see the helper God had made just for him!

Then God married them.

And she became his wife.

Adam and his wife lived together in the garden.

They did not need clothes
because they did not know that they were naked.

Book Three

On day 6 God made all of the animals.

The serpent was the smartest of all the animals that God had created.

One day the woman was in the garden.

The serpent saw her and went to talk with her.

The serpent began asking the woman questions about God.

"Did God really say you must not eat the fruit from any of the trees in the garden?" the serpent asked.

The serpent was trying to trick the woman.

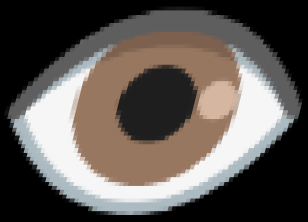
"Of course we can eat fruit from the trees in the garden," she replied.

"It is only the fruit from the tree in the middle of the garden that we are not allowed to eat," she explained.

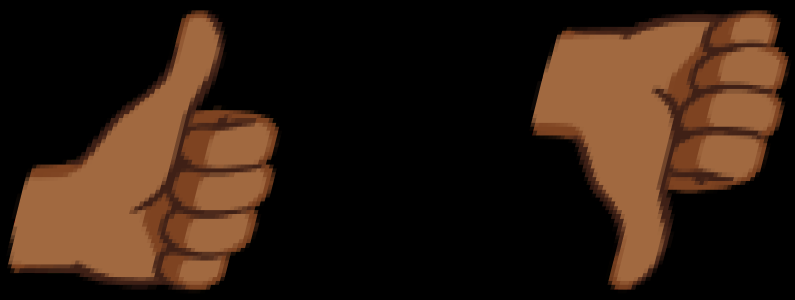
"God said that we must not eat it or even touch it, because if we do we will die!"

"You won't die!" the serpent replied to the woman.

"God knows that your eyes will be open if you eat the fruit and you will be smart like him."

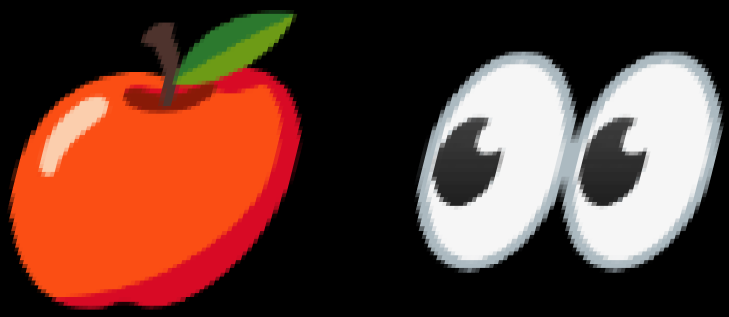


"You will know both good and bad," the serpent added.



The woman believed the serpent.

The woman saw that the tree was beautiful and its fruit looked delicious.



So she ate the fruit!

And she gave some to her husband who was with her.

Immediately after they both ate the fruit they felt different!

They saw that they were not wearing any clothes and they felt shame.

So they found some leaves to cover themselves.

Later that evening, when it was cool and breezy, the man and woman heard God walking in the garden.

So they hid.

God called to the man,

"Where are you?"

The man replied, "I heard you walking and I got scared."

"So I hid from you because I am naked."

"Who told you that you were naked?"

God asked.

"Have you eaten from the tree I warned you not to?"

The man replied,

"It was her!"

God asked the woman,

"What have you done?"

"The serpent tricked me," the woman replied.

Then God spoke to the serpent.

"Because you have done this you are cursed!"

"You will crawl on the ground as long as you live!"

"I will cause hatred between you and the woman and also your child and hers!

One day her child will overpower you!"

Then he said to the woman.

"When you have a baby it will be very painful!"

Then he said to the man.

"Since you listened to your wife instead of me and ate from the tree I warned you not to, the ground is cursed!"

"From now on you will have to work very hard to get your food."

Then the man, who was named Adam, gave his wife the name Eve.

Eve would be the first mother of all who lived.

Then God made clothing for Adam and Eve.

🍀🍀🍀🍀🍀🍀🍀

Now that Adam and Eve had eaten from the forbidden tree they knew both good and bad.

God wanted them to know only good things when they lived in the garden.

🍀🍀🍀🍀🍀🍀🍀

🍀🍀🍀🍀🍀🍀🍀

But if they ate from the tree of life they would live forever.

This would mean that they would forever know bad things.

🍀🍀🍀🍀🍀🍀🍀

🍀🍀🍀🍀🍀🍀🍀

So God had to send Adam and his wife out of the garden.

And Adam now had to grow his own food.

🍀🍀🍀🍀🍀🍀🍀

And God placed angels and a sword around the tree to guard it.

No one was allowed into the garden.

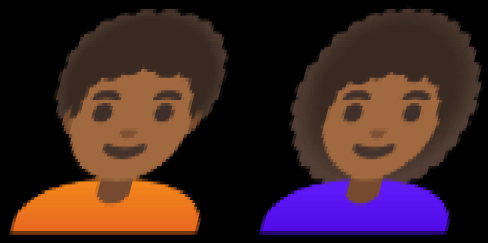
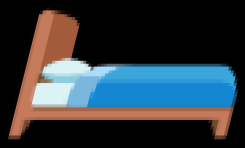
Book Four

Adam and his wife Eve went to sleep.





Eve was ready to have her first baby.

So God helped Eve give birth to her son and she named him Cain.

Then she gave birth to another son and she named him Abel.

Cain and Abel were brothers.

When Abel grew up he took care of the animals.

When Cain grew up he grew crops.

One day the brothers brought gifts to God.

Cain brought some crops from the land.

But Abel brought the best from the flock.

God was happy with what Abel brought him.

But God was not happy with what Cain brought him.

This made Cain very angry.

And his face was upset.

God saw that Cain looked angry and upset.

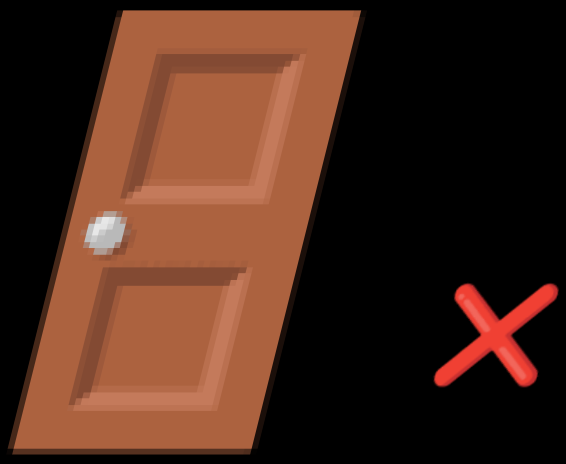
"Why are you so angry and upset?"

"If you do what is right you will be accepted."

"But if you do what is wrong then watch out!"

!!

"Sin is waiting at the door wanting to control you!"



"You must not let that happen!"

One day Cain asked Abel to go out into the fields with him.

While they were in the field Cain attacked his brother and killed him.

Later God appeared and asked Cain,

"Where is your brother Abel?"

"I don't know," Cain responded.

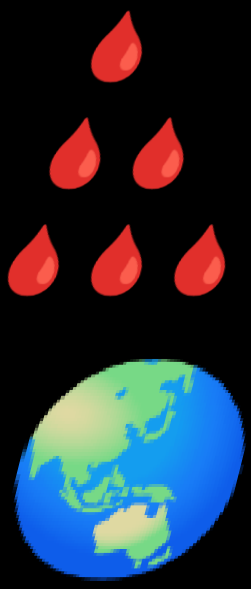
"Is it my duty to take care of my brother?" Cain asked.

God replied,

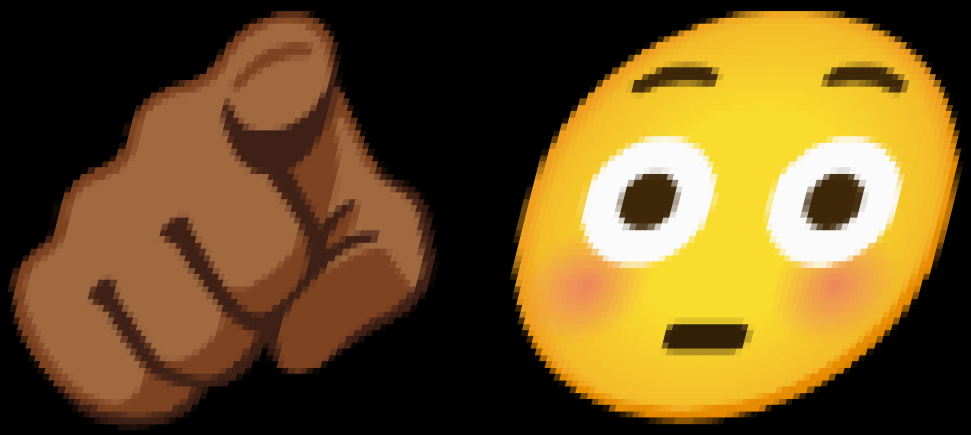
"What have you done?"

"Listen!"

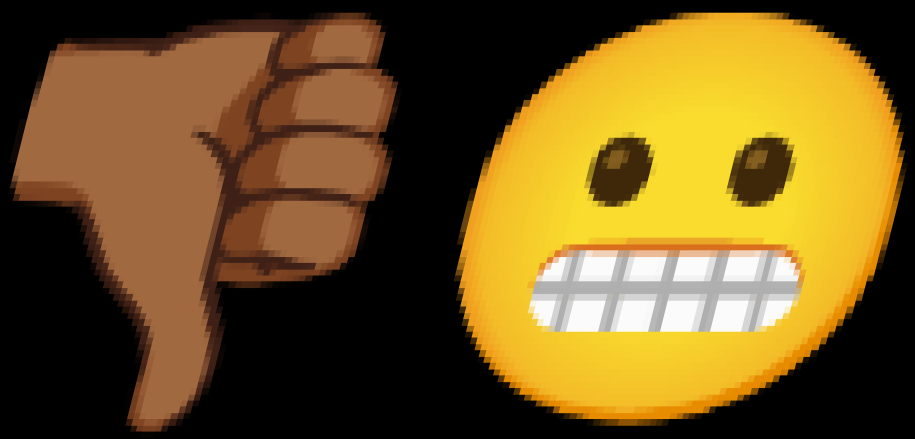
"I can hear the blood of your brother crying from the ground!"



"Because of what you have done, you are now cursed!"



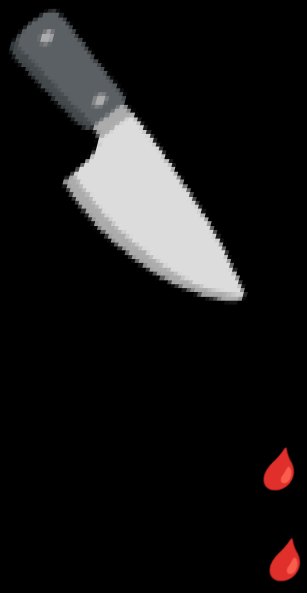
"The crops you plant will no longer be good no matter how hard you work!"



"You will no longer have a home!"

Cain replied to God, "My punishment is too much to bear!"

"I will be all alone without you and when people see me they will kill me!"



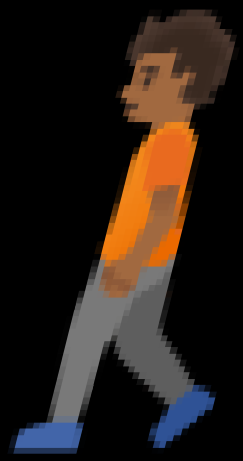
"Not so!"

God replied.

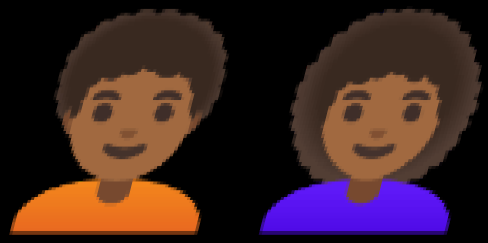
"I will punish anyone who kills you!"

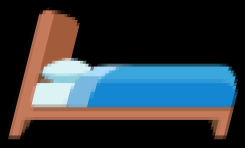
So God put a mark on Cain to warn anyone who would try to kill him.

So Cain left the presence of God and lived in a place called Nod where he started his own family.



Adam and his wife Eve went to bed again.





And they had another son to replace Abel.

Seth was his name.

And the people began to call on the name of God.
