

The Joy Latta Scholarship for Technical Colleges and Trade Schools

*Awarded at the 50th Annual South Carolina International Trade Conference
October 16th – 18th, 2024, Wild Dunes Resort, Isle of Palms, South Carolina*

ABOUT THE SCHOLARSHIP

Each year the S.C. International Trade Conference presents scholarships to students in honor of Joy Latta, who served on the Trade Conference Board of Directors for 23 years, and served as the Demand Process Manager at Selee Corporation for nearly 33 years in Hendersonville, North Carolina. The Joy Latta Scholarship dedicates funds to those students pursuing education and skills from technical colleges and trade schools. In 2023, two scholarships were awarded in the amount of $1,000 each.

An applicant must be currently enrolled in an accredited Trade or Technical School with a minimum 3.0 overall GPA. Applicants must also be either: (1) a S.C. resident attending any trade school or technical college, or (2) attending any South Carolina trade school or technical college regardless of residency, and (3) have focus of study in International Trade, Supply Chain Management, Business, Manufacturing, Engineering, Science or relevant skilled trade.

The selection and ranking criteria, in order of importance, are:

- Demonstrated interest in International Trade, Supply Chain Management, Business, Manufacturing, Engineering, Science or relevant skilled trade, to include volunteer experience;
- Current academic standing and performance
- Narrative and letter of recommendation; and
- Honors and extracurricular activities.

Beyond this scholarship offer, students are also invited to attend the Conference's daily business sessions at no charge. Each session will be led by professionals who are confronted daily by a variety of international trade and logistics issues. The program agenda and other information can be found at: www.scitc.org. If you are interested in attending, please contact the SCITC Scholarship chairperson at scholarships@scitc.org.
