FR. JOHN HORAN, LION KING AND THE BROTHERHOOD OF THE PRIESTHOOD

Last week, Fr. John and I spent a Friday afternoon together, to evaluate our experience of ministry together this past year. We also took the chance to watch the movie Lion King on its opening day. As we sat together talking about priesthood, still with the story of Lion King in mind, many insights about our lives flowed. We were left in awe at our personal paths that brought us to the service of the Lord.

While we were driving, Fr. John got a call from his dad Ray. For those who have met Ray, it is obvious how much of Ray is very recognizable in the personality of Fr. John. I admire their relationship very much because I can see how close they are with each other. The gentle language, the respectful tone, and the loving exchanges between them that I get to somewhat listen to when they talked over the phone kept me thinking of how blessed Fr. John is to have a father like Ray. Especially because I did not have much of it. Even then, I want to believe that he and I are both good spiritual fathers, despite the differences of our relationships with our fathers. He learned how to be a good father via positivity, by doing the good that he has experienced, while I learned how to be a spiritual father by knowing what I should not be doing. These pathways of the spiritual life are called the cataphatic and the apophatic way. God has a way of leading everything to a good end, no matter what the pathways might be.

One of the messages that we both clearly picked up in the movie Lion King is the importance of knowing who we are, and really embracing it fully. For priests like ourselves, it means many things, including being comfortable with our lifestyle, our daily sacrifices, our priestly identity, our responsibilities, our "voice" and the value that people put in what we say and do. It can be really overwhelming, whether one is newly ordained or not. When we think about the demands of the priestly life upon us, we would need the grace of God to help us have the courage and fortitude to embrace it. In the movie, Simba ran away from the guilt that he thought he should carry, and would embrace a relaxed, worry-free philosophy of life. For us priests, it is a constant temptation to think that what we do has no value, and it does not really help people. It is so easy to not be bothered, and to be a minimalist in our priestly ministry. Instead, with the ongoing struggle to embrace our priestly identity, WE NEED TO RESPOND GENEROUSLY. This year, my responsibility has grown even more as I have become the dean of the Kankakee Deanery of Priests, and Fr. John is further extending his ministry as he embraces the commitment to teach at the Faith Formation Program and make regular visits to Bishop McNamara.

One turning point in the movie is when Simba finally sees his father in his very own image on the water. With the song "He Lives in You," the audience witnesses the transformation of Simba into a confident successor of his father, and is set free to be who he is supposed to be, because he realizes that his father is there all along, and that he lives in him. This moment in the movie got us thinking about the value of being aware of the indwelling of the Holy Spirit in our ministry – the Jesus lives in us, as priests, and in the community of the Church, as His Mystical Body. What gives us confidence to do the work of Christ in our time is when we are closely connected to Him who is really present in us now. I do believe that Fr. John and I are both deeply rooted in our priestly commitment because of our love of the Eucharist, the Body and Blood of Christ. I feel like I got to really understand the depth of Fr. John's spirituality when I heard him share his conversion story which revolves around the Eucharist, his awareness that Jesus is really present to us in the Eucharist, as the Eucharist.

I thank God for that wonderful time I spent with Fr. John before I left for my pilgrimage. I am blessed to have him as my brother priest, and I am proud to have the opportunity to witness how he is growing in his priestly ministry. My dear parishioners, please continue to pray for your priests, that we may bless the Church with our dedication and love of God's people.

Ad multos annos!

PADRE JOHN HORAN, REY LEÓN Y LA HERMANDAD SACERDOTAL

La semana pasada, el P. John y yo pasamos el viernes por la tarde evaluando nuestra experiencia ministerial de este año pasado. También tomamos la oportunidad para ver la película Rey León en su estreno. Conversando sobre el sacerdocio, todavía teniendo presente la historia de Rey León, muchas ideas sobre nuestras vidas florecieron. Quedamos asombrados con los caminos personales hacia el servicio del Señor.

Mientras íbamos en manejando, el P. John recibió una llamada de Ray su papá Ray. Para los que conocen a Ray, era obvio el parecido entre padre e hijo. Admiro el relacion uno con el otro. Su mutua amabilidad, respeto y su mutuo afecto me hacen pensar en la gran bendición que goza el P. John en tener un padre como Ray. Especialmente porque, generalmente, ésa no fue mi experiencia. Pero aún así, creo que él y yo somos buenos padres espirituales a pesar de las diferencias en nuestras relaciones con nuestros padres. Él aprendió el como ser buen padre por la vía positiva, viviendo el ejemplo de su padre, mientras yo aprendí como ser un padre espiritual sabiendo lo que no debo hacer. Estos caminos de la vida espiritual se les llaman catafatico y apofatico. Dios dirige todo a un buen fin, ya sea un camino u otro.

Uno de los mensajes que resalta en la película de Rey León es la importancia de saber quién somos, y de verdad acogerlo plenamente. Para nosotros sacerdotes, esto nos dice muchas cosas, incluyendo cómo nos sentirnos confortables en nuestra vida, nuestros sacrificios diarios, nuestra identidad sacerdotal, nuestras responsabilidades, nuestra "voz" y el valor que la gente da a lo que decimos y hacemos. Puede ser muy abrumador, ya sea para uno recién ordenado o no. Cuando consideramos las exigencias de la vida sacerdotal, así mismo necesitamos la gracia de Dios que nos ayude a tener ánimo y fortaleza para acogerlo. En la película, Simba se alejó de la culpabilidad que él pensaba debería cargar y acogio una filosofía de vida relajada y sin preocupaciones. Para nosotros sacerdotes, hay una tentación constante en pensar que lo que hacemos no tiene valor, y que en realidad no ayuda a la gente. Es tan fácil el no ser molestado, y el ser un minimalista en nuestro ministerio sacerdotal. En cambio, con la lucha continua en acoger nuestra identidad sacerdotal, NECESITAMOS RESPONDER GENEROSAMENTE. Este año, mi responsabilidad ha aumentado todavía más, soy el capataz de Kankakee Deanery de Sacerdotes, y el P. John extiende su ministerio y su compromiso a la enseñanza en el Programa Formación de Fe y hacer visitas regularmente a Bishop McNamara.

Hay un cambio en la película, cuando Simba finalmente ve a su padre en su propia imagen sobre el agua. Con la canción "Él Vive en Ti" la audiencia atestigua la transformación de Simba al confiado sucesor seguro de su padre, y goza de su libertad de ser quién es, porque reconoce que su padre siempre está allí, y que él vive en él. Este momento en la película nos ayuda en reconocer la presencia del Espíritu Santo en nuestro ministerio – que Jesús vive en nosotros, sacerdotes y en la comunidad Eclesial, Su Cuerpo Místico. Esto es motivo de confianza en nuestro compromiso con Dios por parte del P. John y yo, en nuestro amor a la Eucaristía, el Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo. De aquí comprendo la espiritualidad del P. John, que él esta consciente en la presencia de Jesús en la Eucaristía.

Doy gracias a Dios por el tiempo maravilloso que pasé con el P. John antes de salir a mi peregrinación, me siento bendecido por tener un hermano sacerdote, por la oportunidad de ver su crecimiento en su ministerio. Mis queridos feligreses, favor de continuar orando por sus sacerdotes, que seamos bendición para la Iglesia con nuestra dedicación y amor por el pueblo de Dios.

¡Ad multos annos!

Fr. Sunny Castillo

A grateful heart shifts focus from ourselves to other people and circumstances as we humbly acknowledge their contribution to our lives. Despite the way it makes us feel, gratitude is not an emotion, it is a learned discipline. You can give yourself this gift by choosing to become mindful of your day-to-day experiences and understanding how the littlest of things can create moments of sheer joy.

Welcome Fr. Paul Nadolny SVD!

Fr. Paul is here with us this weekend to speak about the many ministries of his religious community the Divine Word Missionaries.

They are an international religious community of missionary Priests and Brothers serving in 80 countries helping to build chapels, celebrate the sacraments, and spread the Word of God in the remote mission communities. Over 6,000 active missionaries travel to the far corners of the world building hospitals to care for the sick, educating the poor, teaching the hungry to farm, and providing life's necessities like drinkable water, food, and shelter. We help people neglected and forgotten by society to build a better future and foster vibrant Catholic communities of service and faith around the world.

This Mission Appeal is part of the Mission Coop Program of our Diocese. Please be generous in the second collection to help support the missionary work of the Divine Word Missionaries. Their missionaries serve in some of the most difficult areas of the world.
