2. Working Group Updates - Kim Wanliss, Angelica Jadunandan, Basil Kreimendahl
    Angelica Jadunandan recaps the Equity and Language and Access working group. Moving forward, one meeting per month has been agreed upon. Resources from the "hello.NYC" website are available to file a complaint or request interpretation for school meetings. Updates from the City Council meeting that Qingxia Zhu spoke at are pending. Challenges to be discussed during the upcoming ELA meeting are how to align with the Center for Equitable Education to fundraise and support the outreach.
    Kim Wanliss shares that the Instruction and Programming working group has been divided into two sections; technology and curriculum groups. The technology group has written the resolution on the AI moratorium that was presented. The curriculum group is focused on the teacher made curriculum that has been pushed out and working toward a resolution.

3. Finance Report + Next Year's Budget and Event Calendar - Angelica Jadunandan
    Council member Jadunandan urges the council to submit their member reimbursements by May 31st. Working through the end of the school year balances, certain budget lines have been underspent which means next year's budget should be allocated differently to optimize the use of funding.

4. Superintendent Evaluation

a. Discuss process and next steps

The CEC 15 is giving the community an opportunity to share feedback relating to the Sup. evaluation via survey. President Rogers will allow 2 weeks for comments, then the council will digest and review the insights by the June CEC 15 meeting.

5. Other Business

Business Meeting Adjournment: 9:25 p.m.
