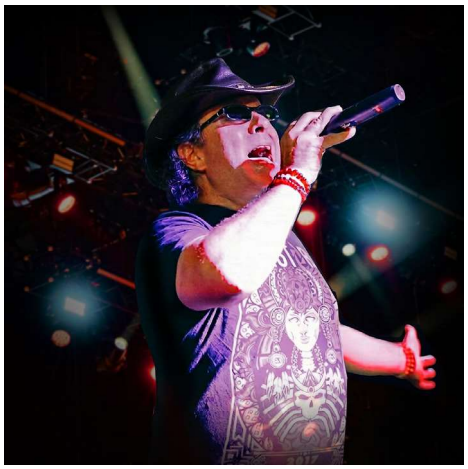
The Band

While Ambush has quickly established its presence on the Myrtle Beach music scene in just three years, the talent behind the band runs much deeper. Each member brings a wealth of musical experience and a proven passion for performing. With nearly 200 years of combined experience, Ambush delivers a powerful live show rooted in seasoned musicianship, authenticity, and an undeniable love of rock and roll.



Kevin Keith ϟ Lead Vocals

A former poet, sommelier, and tech writer, Kevin is a fourth-generation musician whose passion for music runs deep. Equal parts performer and student of music history, he brings a versatile vocal style and broad musical perspective that help define the character and sound of Ambush.

Ron Brinn ϟ Drums

A lifelong musician with roots firmly planted in jazz, Ron Brinn brings a unique dynamic to Ambush as his first true rock and roll project. Influenced by legendary drummers Gene Krupa and Buddy Rich, Ron's style combines technical precision, expressive feel, and a rhythmic foundation that gives the band its unmistakable pulse.

Don Donner ϟ Guitar and Vocals

A self-taught musician since the age of 16, Don Donner brings confidence, passion, and plenty of attitude to the stage. Influenced by guitar legends Joe Perry, Joe Walsh, Ritchie Blackmore, and Allen Collins, Don's style is rooted in the sounds of classic rock. A fan of Les Paul guitars and Marshall amps, he delivers every performance with emotion, energy, and a genuine love for entertaining. And don't be surprised to see him playing barefoot — that's just Don being Don!

Steph Doyle ϟ Bass and Vocals

Steph's musical journey spans both country and rock, with experience performing in multiple bands across both genres. A former Air Force serviceman and graphic artist, he brings a unique blend of musical instinct, life experience, and visual creativity to Ambush. His approach to bass is rooted in strong groove, powerful tone, and serving the song while energizing the stage.

Tom Bruno ϟ Guitar and Vocals

Born and bred in New York and rooted in The Bronx, Tom was playing in his first rock band by 16, cutting his teeth at school dances, parties, band battles, and the local bar scene. His style is shaped by guitar legends including Jimmy Page, Eric Clapton, Tony Iommi, Peter Frampton, Ace Frehley, Joe Perry, and the Allman Brothers. For Tom, it's not just about playing the notes—it's about the energy, the connection, and having a damn good time doing it.

Ambush Origins

Ambush was built on a simple idea: bring the raw power, timeless sound, and unmistakable spirit of Southern and Classic Rock to audiences across the Grand Strand.

Formed in 2023, Ambush wasted little time making its presence felt on the local music scene. Delivering crowd-pleasing performances fueled by iconic singalong anthems, driving guitar riffs, and high-energy rock favorites, the band quickly carved out its own place in the Myrtle Beach music scene.

As the band evolved, so did its identity. Through lineup changes and continued musical growth, Ambush refined its chemistry, expanded its repertoire, and developed the powerful stage presence that defines the band today.

Following the departure of several original members, a new chapter began in 2026 with the addition of bassist Steph Doyle and guitarists Tom Bruno and Don Donner. Bringing fresh energy, seasoned musicianship, and a renewed dynamic to the lineup, these additions helped shape the band's current sound and commanding stage presence.

Today, Ambush delivers a hard-driving mix of Southern and Classic Rock, packed with the songs audiences know and love. Powered by Kevin Keith's commanding vocals, a rock-solid rhythm section, and soaring guitar work, the band brings every performance to life with passion, authenticity, and an unmistakable love of rock and roll. From the opening note to the final encore, Ambush is all about great songs, powerful performances, and giving audiences a show worth remembering.
