ROUND HOUSE CONSULTING

Livery Executive Search

Tailored to you, helping your Company find the right person.

Round House Consulting is a family-run, veteran-owned executive search partnership, founded in 2023 by Guy Denison-Smith, a former British Army officer.

Whether it's your next Clerk, Assistant Clerk, Beadle or General Manager, we help you find the right individual who pairs leadership and sound administration with tradition, discretion and a warm welcome for the Court, the Livery and guests. We work alongside you from the first conversation to the day your new appointment starts, and remain on hand long after they have settled in.

Working with the Livery

Clerk to the Clockmakers

Worshipful Company of Clockmakers, 2026. We worked closely with the Company to find its new Clerk, the senior officer at the heart of its governance and day-to-day life.

Beadle and General Manager

Worshipful Company of Saddlers, 2026. We worked closely with the Company on a role that leads both its ceremonial life and its day-to-day operations.

Every Livery role

Clerks, Assistant Clerks, Beadles and General Managers, and any other role where the right person matters to your Company. Full-time, part-time or interim.

Plus: We know the Livery – we understand the Court, the Master and Wardens, and Livery life. Built on service – around 75% of our network has served in the Armed Forces. Absolute discretion – we protect your confidence, even while the incumbent is in post.

Value for money

- Flexible terms. Case-by-case or retained: we'll agree what suits your Company best.
- Competitive fees. A fair fee, scaled to the role and to your Company's budget.
- Founder-led. You work with us personally on every search, with no hand-offs to junior staff.
- Less of your time. We do the groundwork, so your panel only meets candidates worth meeting.
- More than a hire. We stay in touch, with mentoring to help your new appointment settle and thrive.
