WELCOME TO STOCKTONCON

On behalf of our StocktonCon Organizing Committee, we'd like to welcome you to the 14th StocktonCon, presented by Utility Telecom. In our 13th year at Adventist Health Arena, we really hope you enjoy the event! Mentioned above, Utility Telecom has gone above and beyond as our presenting sponsor. A special thanks to Jason Mills and his staff at Utility Telecom for their support!

We'd like to thank all of our artists, celebrities, exhibitors, vendors and small press companies for helping us fill the building. We have had such great support and couldn't do it without all of you.

StocktonCon would not be possible without the support of several agencies who always believed in us. StocktonCon started with Andy Prokop and the United Way. It was with Andy's help and vision to turn StocktonCon to a reality. He will be missed very much. We'd also like to thank Robyn Camino and Visit Stockton. A special thanks to Stockton Arena, with Jason Perry, Joseph Gutierrez, Nick Belasco, Erik Gaspar and so many others providing a lot of help. Additionally, our partners, Chase Chevrolet, Penney and Associates, Guiffra's Party Rentals, Aurora Limousine, Buffalo Wild Wings and the University Plaza Waterfront Hotel have been invaluable. The great work of Cathy Douma and her staff at Minuteman Press in addition to Tina DeZuniga, Supreme Pro Wrestling and Cumulus Media are so important to what we do. We'd also like to thank all of the local comic, game, toy and other shops that help support us.

We'd also like to recognize and appreciate the contributions of StocktonCon's Lead Artist Ramon Villalobos for the poster/program cover. His efforts, along with the help of Charles Coover, Gabey Ruiz, Lauren Nakashima, Douggary Grant, Mike Hampton, Brian Wells, Ross French, Scott Armstrong, Ben Armstrong, Colin Armstrong, Keri Armstrong, August Biskup, Drake and Michelle Smith, Julio and Lidia Pantojas, Steve Wyatt, Dave Ziegler, and Jeremy Curtis really make a difference in helping this event happen. We also would like to thank the War Torn Front for their work with the War Torn Front Gaming Room in the Lobby Concourse Area.

And finally -- We'd like to thank you - the fans, for your overwhelming support of this event.

TONY DEZUNIGA (1932-2012)

Tony's legacy will continue to live on with his family and those that he inspired. He made Stockton his home for the greater part of the last decade and he worked with many local artists, mentoring them when he could.

He is an important figure in comic, gallery, and illustration art for several reasons. During the 1970s, he brought a realistic look from his advertising style of illustration. Some of his best work was in collaboration with John Buscema in the early issues of The Savage Sword of Conan. He also co-created Jonah Hex and The Black Orchid for DC comics and worked with a number of important stories in the comic world.

An art exhibit at the Haggin Museum honors Tony through August 16th.

ANDY PROKOP (1947-2025)

Andy had a way of connecting with every person he met.

He was a cherished friend, father, leader, veteran, and humanitarian. He passed away earlier this year, surrounded by his loving family and Carol, his wife and best friend for 53 years.

His work with the United Way and San Joaquin and many other organizations showed his kindness and compassion for helping others. Andy's initials AP reflected his "Always Positive" attitude and it resonated with everyone he met.

He was instrumental in helping StocktonCon get its start in 2012 and we will always be grateful - and we always strive to be positive.
