Dear Alumni and Friends,

We invite you to join us on safari and experience the world's largest wild life trans-frontier conservation area. From the 172,000 square mile Kavango Zambezi Safari area, larger that Germany and Austria combined, to the mystical Matobo Hills UNESCO World Heritage site and onwards into the remote wilds of Botswana and Zimbabwe where abundant wild life roam free with no boundaries.

During this 9 night experience prepare yourself to witness the greatest remaining Elephant kingdom in the world and search for over 197 mammal species, including, lion prides as they pursue buffalo and zebra herds. Your customized program also includes a visit to one of the seven natural wonders, the mighty Victoria Falls, African village visits and encounters with the local people in this beautiful land.

Our Licensed Professional Guides will escort you throughout your African Adventure along with private chefs and staff in all of our Safari camps. Our Licensed guides will provide an in depth look into the unique wildlife, cultures, history and cuisine of Southern Africa.

Space on this spectacular customized adventure is limited. Make your reservation today!

Warmest regards,

Stan Key

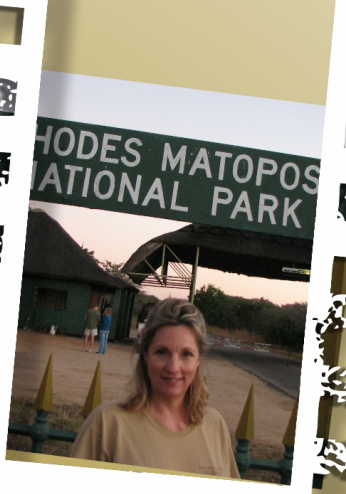
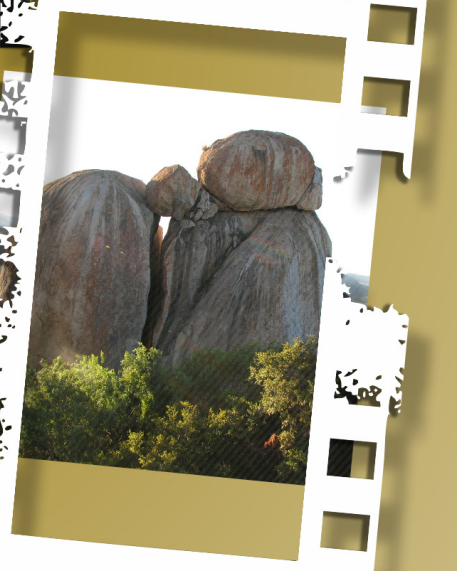
Day 1 - 4 Matobo National Park

The Matobo Hills, is a UNESCO World Heritage Site in Western Zimbabwe, where Cecil John Rhodes (Rhodes Scholarship) and King Mzilikazi were both laid to rest. This magnificient area is covered with huge bare granite hills (kopjes) that have gravity defying boulders all across the African bushveld. The hills cover an aread of some 3100 square kilometes boasting the highest concentration of Leopard and Black Eagle anywhere in the world.





DAY 1:
Depart your gateway city for Bulawayo in Matabeleland South

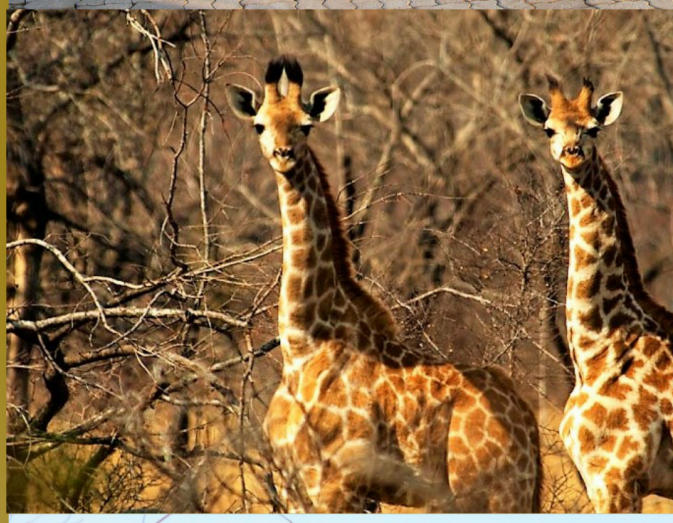
DAY 2:
Arrive Joshua Mqabuko Nkomo International Airport and then you will be transferred in a private road vehicle to your lodge in Matobo National Park.
Meal - (L,D) Lodge: Matobo Hills

DAY 3:
Enjoy your day exploring Matobo National Park, visit Cecil Rhodes' gravesite, visit the famous bushman painted caves and visit the sites where the Matabele armies and white settlers clashed during the 1896 uprising.
Meal - (B,L,D) Lodge: Matobo Hills

DAY 4:
Depart lodge and for a private road transfer to Hwange Game Reserve.
Meal - (B,L,D) Lodge: Ganda Lodge

Day 4 - 8: Hwange Game Reserve

The spectacular Hwange National Park, along the Botswana and western Zimbabwe wildlife migration routes, has among the highest diversity of mammals for any Game Reserve in the world with over 108 species. The park also boasts over 400 species of bird and some 50 species of raptor. This great animal kingdom covers over 14,600 square kilometers, bigger than the country of Belgium. Hwange offers our visitors the opportunity to witness over 60,000 elephant that inhabit this wild kingdom. To travel through Hwange National Park today is to witness what much of the interior of Africa might have been like more than 200 years ago.



DAY 4: Arrive Hwange Game Reserve
Settled into your room and enjoy a relaxing evening.
Meals: (L,D) Lodge: Ganda

DAY 5 - 7
Enjoy your days with full day game drives, morning and afternoon game drive, cape hunting dog conservatory visit, guided walks lead by qualified and passionate private guides who will share their knowledge and love of the bush with you. Wildlife abundance in this concession include elephant, kudu, sable antelope, zebra, wildebeest, buffalo, giraffe, lion, leopard, hyena, and countless other wildlife species.

Your evenings will be spent relaxing around an African camp fire, sipping on sundowners and listening to the nocturnal animals come alive.
Meals: (B,L,D) Lodge: Ganda

DAY 8:
Say goodbye to your safari lodge and heard to your next adventure!
You will be transferred by private road vehicle to your lodge in Kavango Zambezi Victoria Falls.
Meals: (B)

Victoria Falls or as the locals call it "Mosi-O-Tunya" (the smoke that thunders) is absolutely breathtaking and deserves its spot as Africa's number one tourist attraction. It is one of the seven natural wonders of the world and is listed as a World Heritage Site. Because of its status as a World Heritage Site any modernization has been restricted and the Falls remains in its natural state.

DAY 8:
Arrive Kavango Zambezi Victoria Fall.
Check into Victoria Falls Safari Lodge
In the evening you will be transferred from your lodge to the mighty Zambezi River for a lovely sunset cruise.
Meals: On your own Lodge: Victoria Falls Safari Lodge

DAY 9:
Embark on your Elephant adventure into the paradise of Northern Botswana! This adventure into northern Botswana, a favorite destination of Britain's Prince Harry, boasts an incredible abundance of elephant and wildlife. This African paradise will offer a safari experience of a lifetime. This safari area of northern Botswana is divided into four different eco-systems comprising the dense forests and lush plains of the Serondela, the Savuti Marsh, and the Linyati, the hot and arid hinterland in between.
Meals: (B,L) Lodge: Victoria Falls Safari Lodge

DAY 10:
Experience a private guided tour of the beautiful Victoria Falls.
In the evening you will enjoy a lovely exotic African cuisine dinner along with traditional African dancing and entertainment from the Nambya, Ndebele, Tonga, Shangaan tribes.
Meals: (B,D) Lodge: Victoria Falls Safari Lodge

DAY 11:
Depart for the U.S.A.
Meals: (B)

Booking Terms and Conditions

Payments

A deposit of $850 from each Client is required when submitting the application form to confirm a booking, unless otherwise agreed in the Agent Contract.

The full amount due by the Client to the Company, shall be payable by June 1, 2018 (unless otherwise specified in the Agent's Contract). No Client will be permitted to commence any itinerary without payment in full being received by the Company. If the full amount is not received, the Company shall be entitled in its discretion to treat the reservation as cancelled, and consequently to forfeit such part of the advance payment as determined solely by the Company. Late applicants may join the tour based on accommodation availability.

Cancellations

Should the client wish to cancel the trip our Cancellation Policy is as follows:

- Cancellation more than 120 days prior to date of travel will incur a 25 percent fee of total trip cost
- Cancellation within 60 to 120 days prior to date of travel will incur a 50 percent fee of total trip cost
- Cancellation within 0 to 60 days prior to date of travel or less, as well as no shows, will incur a 100 percent cancellation fee of the trip cost to cover handling fees, liquidated damages and other associated costs

Liability

Any safari activity is potentially hazardous and it is essential that all lawful directions of the safari operator and Professional Guide be followed at all times. Run Wild African Safaris, Inc. accepts no responsibility for any accident, illness, or loss whatsoever incurred in the course of the safari or any expense as a result.

The Client hereby acknowledges, confirms and records that he/she understands the risk inherent in adventure travel in African destinations and associated activities. The Client is accepted onto the tour and undertakes to do the tour, travel or activity at his/her own risk. We make no guarantees or accept any responsibility for weather conditions affecting the safari or delays arising from accidental breakage of equipment or air charter availability. No refunds will be given to any client wishing to leave the safari early.

Insurance

Travel and cancellation insurance is mandatory for every Client. All insurance is solely the responsibility of the Client. Before a Client commences a tour, he/she should arrange his/her own insurance with protection for the full duration of the travel, to cover including but not limited to, personal injury, damage and loss of personal items including but not limited to camera equipment and other electronic equipment, medical expenses, repatriation expenses and loss of luggage. If a Client falls ill, all hospital expenses, medical expenses, doctor's fees and repatriation costs are the Client's responsibility and the Company shall not be liable for any refund of the tour rate whatsoever. The carriage and storage of all baggage and personal effects are at all times the Client's risk and the Company will not accept any liability for any loss or damage of baggage or personal effects. It is the clients' responsibility to ensure all personal items are covered by travel insurance for the correct value.

Health Restrictions

The Client shall acknowledge an awareness of the proposed itinerary and shall confirm that he or she is medically fit, in good physical and mental health and is able to embark on the tour. Any Client with a pre-existing medical condition or illness must declare the true nature of such a condition to the Company before the commencement of the tour. Any failure to declare may result in the cancellation of his/her booking.

Company Responsibility and Rights

The information in any brochure and printed itineraries is given in good faith by the Company, and is based on the latest information available to the Company. Printed itineraries serve as a guideline only. The company reserves the right to change the facilities or transport described in any publication without being liable for any compensation or refund.

Company Authority

Any decision made by the professional tour guide, acting as a Company representative, shall be deemed final on all matters. The company shall not be responsible or liable for any client who commits an illegal or unlawful act in any country visited, or the consequences of such an illegal act. The client may in such circumstances be excluded from the tour without a refund, at the sole discretion of the Company or Company representative. If the Company considers a client unsuitable for a tour (due to mental or physical illness or implied danger to any other Client or Company representative) it may at its sole discretion decline to carry the Client further. If a Client causes severe inconvenience or annoyance to other Clients, the Company may decline to carry the client further, without any refund whatsoever. This will only occur after extensive intervention by the tour guide or Company representative.

Client Responsibility

It is the Client's sole responsibility to ensure that passports, visas, travel permits and inoculations required for the tour, are obtained well in advance and are in order in terms of all the countries to be visited. It is the Client's responsibility to meet any additional costs incurred either by the Client (or by the Company on the Client's behalf) as a result of any failure by the Client to comply with such requirements. The Company may not be held liable for any failure on the part of a client to be in possession of the correct travel documentation. It is the Client's responsibility to fully acquaint themselves with the Terms and Conditions set herein and all matters such as visas, required documentation, payment schedules and cancellation policies.
