Kwahu Sakima Xi-Amaru

CANDIDATE FOR CHIEF MINISTER

"Bridging our roots to the global future through sovereign clarity, structural organization, and transparent governance."

EXECUTIVE MANDATE

The Office of Communications and International Affairs governs how our sovereign nation relates to the global community, engages with international bodies, and communicates with its nationals. This ministry anchors our standing as an autonomous indigenous nation-state, increasing awareness regarding international indigenous autonomy and asserting our political aspirations worldwide.

CORE DIRECTIVES OF THE MINISTRY

1. Global Engagement
Tracking international developments concerning indigenous rights, self-determination, and human rights frameworks globally.

2. Strategic Information
Ensuring transparent, accurate communication channels across ARNA regional headquarters, ministries, and international allies.

3. Sovereign Representation
Projecting a unified, dignified indigenous voice that articulates our historical jurisprudence and modern political status.

LEADERSHIP QUALIFICATIONS

- Current International Affairs: Founder of Abo Xi, a global cacao institution importing from Colombia and exporting worldwide.
- Commitment to ARNA Principles: Grounded in the foundational framework of the world's first Indigenous Government for misnomered Black-Americans.
- Operational Discipline: Experienced in structuring workflows that turn broad national objectives into administrative realities.

ABORIGINAL REPUBLIC OF NORTH AMERICA (ARNA)

Pillar I: External Diplomacy & Global Sovereignty

ESTABLISHING OUR PLACE AMONG NATIONS

An autonomous nation must actively engage the international arena to secure its political goals. This pillar focuses on structural outreach beyond domestic borders, asserting our rightful standing among global powers and international bodies.

1. Global Framework Alignment

Utilizing international mechanisms, human rights standards (such as UNDRIP — United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples), and global bodies to advocate for indigenous autonomy and international recognition.

2. Cross-Border Institutional Partnerships

Contracting and collaborating with sovereign nations, international entities, and global NGOs that support indigenous self-determination, strategic legal protection, and cooperative development.

3. Treaty and Heritage Education

Documenting and communicating our historical treaties, jurisdiction, and inherent rights to external observers in clear, undeniable terms, including active direct representation at the United Nations Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues.

4. Economic Diplomacy

Developing robust international trade relations and cross-border commercial pathways for ARNA nationals and businesses, fostering economic self-sufficiency on the global stage.

ABORIGINAL REPUBLIC OF NORTH AMERICA (ARNA)
Pillar II: Internal Communications & Nation-Wide Cohesion

UNITING THE REGIONS THROUGH TRANSPARENT INFORMATION

A strong government relies on an informed, tightly connected citizenry. Communication must flow seamlessly across all regions to eliminate fragmentation and build collective strength.

1. Unified Information Networks
Establish secure, real-time communication channels between all ARNA regional headquarters (such as Atlan) and everyday nationals to keep communities synchronized.

2. Plain-Language Governance
Translate complex geopolitical, legal, and administrative frameworks into accessible, multilingual resources so every citizen can fully understand and participate in governance.

3. Community Feedback Loops
Implement transparent digital town halls and direct, structured channels for nationals to voice concerns, submit inquiries, and participate actively in national decisions.

4. Nation-Wide Cohesion
Develop cultural exchange programs and community initiatives to unite ARNA communities across North America under a shared historical legacy and future vision.

5. Secure Citizen Registry
Deploy a secure digital platform and citizen registry for ARNA nationals to easily access government services, verify status, and participate in national votes.

ABORIGINAL REPUBLIC OF NORTH AMERICA (ARNA)

Pillar III: Strategic Media, Cultural Narrative & Leadership

DEFINING OUR STORY ON OUR OWN TERMS

For too long, the narrative of Aboriginal and Moorish descent peoples has been defined by external powers. This ministry takes complete ownership of our public profile and narrative infrastructure.

1. Aboriginal Global Media Integration
Launch an ARNA-owned global news and media academy reflecting our true historical legacy, genetics, and cultural identity.

2. Countering Misinformation
Establish a dedicated rapid-response team to correct historical and modern media distortions regarding indigenous status and nationality.

3. Empowering Youth & Communicators
Develop a comprehensive mentorship program and media academy training the next generation of spokespeople, writers, and digital strategists.

4. Leadership & Qualifications: Founder of Abo Xi
Proven global business and trade experience, importing cacao from Colombia and exporting worldwide.

5. Operational Discipline & Vision
Demonstrated ability to build complex organizational structures and a proven roadmap for securing ARNA's place on the world stage.
