Soul Wound Healing - What is a "Soul Wound"?

What is a "Soul Wound"? A "soul wound" is a wounded and hurt part of a person's soul as a result of sin or trauma that one has experienced at some point in their lives. Every person on earth has experienced some type of trauma and emotional hurt at some point in their lives due to the sinful and fallen nature of the world that we live in. Whether it be a self-inflicted emotional trauma wound caused from voluntary sin and things that we have participated in or even if another person sinned against you in some way and caused deep emotional hurts, we all have had or do have soul wounds within us.

We are made in God's "Image" and we are 3-part beings: Body, Soul, and Spirit. The "Spirit" is God's Presence, His Essence within us and is what is born again, your "Body" is your actual physical body made of flesh and bone, and your "Soul" is your Mind, your Will, and your Emotions.

When we get hurt badly enough that we cannot cope with something, we can disassociate. When we disassociate, we can put the pain/hurt/trauma away in our mind and tuck it away because it is simply just too painful, too traumatizing, and just too much to handle. We are not made to hold onto it or capable of carrying such heavy and painful burdens in our lives. That is what our beautiful and powerful Savior, Jesus, is there for. He is meant to handle and carry the heavy burdens in our lives that are simply just too much for us to bare. Jesus can and will take our pain and sorrows and "carry" them for us, if we allow Him to. When we experience emotional pain and trauma and we "tuck" it away in our mind and don't deal with it, and if we do not go to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, to heal us and lift off the heavy pain and burdens, then these hurts and traumas in our lives can create a "soul wound", a tiny split (a wound) in our soul. If you have been emotionally hurt many times in your life, you can have many of these "splits" or wounds in your soul.

Satan takes full advantage of these hurts and traumas in our soul - he comes to kill, steal, and destroy! When we get one of these soul wounds and our minds hold onto them, even if we have tucked them away in the back of our memory, demons instantly enter. Soul wounds, emotional hurt, and traumas are open doors to the enemy and demons enter us through those wounds and hurts. The demons stay in a person where those wounds are present indefinitely until the soul wound is 100% healed all the way down at the root.

The glorious news is that our Savior, JESUS CHRIST who is Jehovah Rapha, "the Lord who HEALS", can and will HEAL you of every soul wound and hurt that you have when you call on Him to come and to heal you and to remove the emotional soul wounds and traumas that you have been carrying with you. When Yeshua heals those wounds, the demons must flee, because they no longer have the legal right and access of an open door to you through your trauma and pain. When you allow Jesus to come into your heart and have authority over your life and when you fully surrender yourself to Him; He will heal you, He will carry you, He will comfort you, He will counsel you, He will intercede for you, He will redeem you, He will restore you, He will deliver you and He will set you FREE!

"He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds."
