

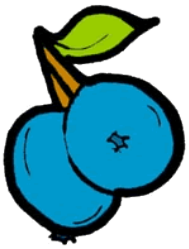
2017 Down to Earth Farm
BLUEBERRY THROWDOWN



Thanks for your interest in competing at our first ever blueberry dessert competition which will take place at our annual Farm to Family Raffle and Picnic on August 19th. This will be a lighthearted event open to everyone who attends – Show us your stuff, feed our hungry farm friends, and be the first winner on our Blueberry Throwdown wall of fame☺

When: August 19th, 2017 – 1:30 PM.

Note: Picnic runs from 12:00 to 3:00PM

Where: Down to Earth Farm. 37003 Mann Rd., Sultan, WA

We have a freezer and walk-in cooler to place any entries until judging.

Rules

- One entry per person
- Entries must be a dessert showcasing blueberries.
- Desserts must be made from scratch. Scratch = no store bought fillings, pie crusts, canned biscuits or cake mixes. Any dessert goes; cookies, cakes, pastries, pudding, pie, ice cream…you get the picture – Dessert!
- Recipes can be somebody else's but we welcome and encourage your own personal touch.

How to Enter

- Select your winning recipe
- Bring your finished dessert to us before 1:00PM on the day of the event. We have a walk-in cooler and freezer to hold anything that needs to be cold.
- Dessert should be placed in a container that prevents any potential judges from seeing who has what. I.e. paper bag, box, etc.
- Include with your dessert the following information;

    - Name of Dessert
    - Your Name
    - Phone and/or Email

Judging

- Desserts will be judged on flavor, appearance, and texture foremost. Creativity will count in tie-breakers.
- Judging will happen at approximately 1:30PM during our annual Farm to Family Raffle and Picnic
- Winners will receive not only the envy of everyone around, but a gift basket from the farm.
- Entries will not be known by the judges – we will keep names and desserts hidden until time of judging. Dishes will only have #'s on them to ensure impartiality.
