The 54th Annual Meeting of the Alaska Anthropological Association
March 25-29, 2027.

Conference Housing
Conference lodging is available at UIC facilities in Utqiaġvik. To reserve a room, please contact Telayna Wong at UIC directly at telayna.wong@uicalaska.com. Please indicate your preferred lodging option and occupancy preference when requesting a reservation. UIC will confirm room assignments and provide payment details by email.

Ukpik Nest Bunk House
AkAA has reserved the full Ukpik Nest for conference participants.
The facility includes 26 rooms:

- 6 single-occupancy rooms
- 20 double-occupancy rooms

Additional rooms are available on a first-come, first-served basis:

- Family-Style Housing (Building 42): 7 rooms, each with two beds—an option for smaller groups or attendees seeking a more residential setting.
- Nanuq's Den: Most of the 39 rooms are currently available.

All lodging includes shared bathrooms, common spaces, and fully equipped kitchens.
2027 Rate: $210 per night, plus a 5% city bed tax.
