Good News From Israel

Israel's Economic Growth. Israel's economy is growing so fast, it will leapfrog the Netherlands and Australia within the next 18 months, in time for it's 80th birthday, not by 2030 as predicted, to rank second only to the US in GDP per capita of nations with populations over 10 million. In 2016, the United States set up a memorandum of understanding with the Israeli government that provided around $38 billion in security assistance to the country from fiscal years 2019 to 2028. Trump told Fox News, "They don't need it. If they did, I would say keep it going. But Bibi and I reached an agreement on that. Actually, he brought it up. Netanyahu's office said the move shows the strength and sophistication of our relationship, and its ability to adapt and stand strong over time. Today, Israel has a strong and stable economy." Delegates from more than 20 countries, including Japan, India, Nigeria, Colombia and the US, gathered in Jerusalem for the First International Congress of Noahides. On the Mount of Olives, they signed a covenant affirming the God of Israel and recognizing Jerusalem as the place where humanity converges with its Creator. The Noahide movement is based on an ancient Jewish teaching that God established seven universal commandments for humanity through Adam and Noah. Unlike the 613 commandments traditionally associated with Jewish religious law, these seven principles are understood in rabbinic Judaism as obligations for all people. They prohibit idolatry, blasphemy, murder, theft, sexual immorality, eating flesh taken from a living animal, and establishing courts of justice. Most Christians would recognize considerable moral agreement with these principles. But, they also believe non-Jews can worship the God of Israel and live righteously without converting to Judaism or accepting Jesus Christ as Messiah. This is where a fundamental theological disagreement begins. The New Testament teaches that salvation comes through Jesus Christ, not adherence to a universal moral code. Jesus declared in John 14:6 that no one comes to the Father except through Him. Acts 4:12 similarly teaches that salvation is found in no other name. Could Noahide contribute to a future system of global religious unity.

There are active protests in UK, Ireland, The Netherlands, Spain, Portugal, France, Germany, Belgium Austria, Italy, Serbia, Albania, Greece and others. As Europe plunges into this "Palestinian curse", the man they will eventually choose to rescue them will grant the Jews the right to build a temple on Jerusalem's Temple Mount. Will evil stop there? No! Halfway through that peace agreement, he will demand to be worshipped as God in that very temple! If you are born again according to John 3:5 and Acts 2:38, you should no longer be here. An agreement between Denmark, Greenland, and the US has been signed aimed at strengthening Arctic and North Atlantic security, easing tensions over Trump's repeated calls for Greenland to become a part of the US.
