Dear Parishioners: Sunday marks Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe (Christ the King). The Church liturgical year ends, and we are pointed to the end of time itself and the return of Jesus our King. We are full of hope as we actively pray for the return of Christ in glory.

Matthew's Gospel includes the parable of the separation of the sheep and the goats. Christians believe that whatever we do for the least of our brothers and sisters, we also do for Christ. We are called to put faith into action and to provide, welcome, feed, and care for others.

Abraham Lincoln proclaimed a national day of thanksgiving in 1863. Congress established the fourth Thursday in November as a federal holiday in 1941. We practice gratitude, gather with family, and count God's blessings. The readings prompt us to recall God's wonders, to thank God, and to be in communion with Christ and others. Thanksgiving is Thursday, November 26th & Mass is at 8:00 am.

The Church teaches that Advent is a time of preparation for Christmas, in which the First Coming of Jesus is remembered. This remembrance leads our minds and hearts to look forward to Jesus' Second Coming at the end of time. Early Christians cried out: Marantha. "Come Lord Jesus." May Jesus be present in our hearts. A list of Advent Penance Services will soon appear in the bulletin.

May God bless you and your loved ones.

Sincerely in Christ, Fr. Greg

We are collecting non-perishable food items to assemble Christmas food baskets for local families in need. We could use Tuna, soups, crackers, pancake mix (Complete), syrup, mac & cheese, hamburger helper, canned vegetables, ketchup, mustard, mayo, 5# bags of sugar. We are good on paper products at this time.

Dear Parishioners: Sunday marks Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe (Christ the King). The Church liturgical year ends, and we are pointed to the end of time itself and the return of Jesus our King. We are full of hope as we actively pray for the return of Christ in glory.

Matthew's Gospel includes the parable of the separation of the sheep and the goats. Christians believe that whatever we do for the least of our brothers and sisters, we also do for Christ. We are called to put faith into action and to provide, welcome, feed, and care for others.

Abraham Lincoln proclaimed a national day of thanksgiving in 1863. Congress established the fourth Thursday in November as a federal holiday in 1941. We practice gratitude, gather with family, and count God's blessings. The readings prompt us to recall God's wonders, to thank God, and to be in communion with Christ and others. Thanksgiving is Thursday, November 26th & Mass is at 8:00 am.

The Church teaches that Advent is a time of preparation for Christmas, in which the First Coming of Jesus is remembered. This remembrance leads our minds and hearts to look forward to Jesus' Second Coming at the end of time. Early Christians cried out: Marantha. "Come Lord Jesus." May Jesus be present in our hearts. A list of Advent Penance Services will soon appear in the bulletin.

May God bless you and your loved ones.

Sincerely in Christ, Fr. Greg

We are collecting non-perishable food items to assemble Christmas food baskets for local families in need. We could use Tuna, soups, crackers, pancake mix (Complete), syrup, mac & cheese, hamburger helper, canned vegetables, ketchup, mustard, mayo, 5# bags of sugar. We are good on paper products at this time.

December 8th – Holy Day

Dear Parishioners: Sunday marks Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe (Christ the King). The Church liturgical year ends, and we are pointed to the end of time itself and the return of Jesus our King. We are full of hope as we actively pray for the return of Christ in glory.

Matthew's Gospel includes the parable of the separation of the sheep and the goats. Christians believe that whatever we do for the least of our brothers and sisters, we also do for Christ. We are called to put faith into action and to provide, welcome, feed, and care for others.

Abraham Lincoln proclaimed a national day of thanksgiving in 1863. Congress established the fourth Thursday in November as a federal holiday in 1941. We practice gratitude, gather with family, and count God's blessings. The readings prompt us to recall God's wonders, to thank God, and to be in communion with Christ and others. Thanksgiving is Thursday, November 26th & Mass is at 8:00 am.

The Church teaches that Advent is a time of preparation for Christmas, in which the First Coming of Jesus is remembered. This remembrance leads our minds and hearts to look forward to Jesus' Second Coming at the end of time. Early Christians cried out: Marantha. "Come Lord Jesus." May Jesus be present in our hearts. A list of Advent Penance Services will soon appear in the bulletin.

May God bless you and your loved ones.

Sincerely in Christ, Fr. Greg

We are collecting non-perishable food items to assemble Christmas food baskets for local families in need. We could use Tuna, soups, crackers, pancake mix (Complete), syrup, mac & cheese, hamburger helper, canned vegetables, ketchup, mustard, mayo, 5# bags of sugar. We are good on paper products at this time.

Dear Parishioners: Sunday marks Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe (Christ the King). The Church liturgical year ends, and we are pointed to the end of time itself and the return of Jesus our King. We are full of hope as we actively pray for the return of Christ in glory.

Matthew's Gospel includes the parable of the separation of the sheep and the goats. Christians believe that whatever we do for the least of our brothers and sisters, we also do for Christ. We are called to put faith into action and to provide, welcome, feed, and care for others.

Abraham Lincoln proclaimed a national day of thanksgiving in 1863. Congress established the fourth Thursday in November as a federal holiday in 1941. We practice gratitude, gather with family, and count God's blessings. The readings prompt us to recall God's wonders, to thank God, and to be in communion with Christ and others. Thanksgiving is Thursday, November 26th & Mass is at 8:00 am.

The Church teaches that Advent is a time of preparation for Christmas, in which the First Coming of Jesus is remembered. This remembrance leads our minds and hearts to look forward to Jesus' Second Coming at the end of time. Early Christians cried out: Marantha. "Come Lord Jesus." May Jesus be present in our hearts. A list of Advent Penance Services will soon appear in the bulletin.

May God bless you and your loved ones.

Sincerely in Christ, Fr. Greg

We are collecting non-perishable food items to assemble Christmas food baskets for local families in need. We could use Tuna, soups, crackers, pancake mix (Complete), syrup, mac & cheese, hamburger helper, canned vegetables, ketchup, mustard, mayo, 5# bags of sugar. We are good on paper products at this time.

Dear Parishioners: Sunday marks Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe (Christ the King). The Church liturgical year ends, and we are pointed to the end of time itself and the return of Jesus our King. We are full of hope as we actively pray for the return of Christ in glory.

Matthew's Gospel includes the parable of the separation of the sheep and the goats. Christians believe that whatever we do for the least of our brothers and sisters, we also do for Christ. We are called to put faith into action and to provide, welcome, feed, and care for others.

Abraham Lincoln proclaimed a national day of thanksgiving in 1863. Congress established the fourth Thursday in November as a federal holiday in 1941. We practice gratitude, gather with family, and count God's blessings. The readings prompt us to recall God's wonders, to thank God, and to be in communion with Christ and others. Thanksgiving is Thursday, November 26th & Mass is at 8:00 am.

The Church teaches that Advent is a time of preparation for Christmas, in which the First Coming of Jesus is remembered. This remembrance leads our minds and hearts to look forward to Jesus' Second Coming at the end of time. Early Christians cried out: Marantha. "Come Lord Jesus." May Jesus be present in our hearts. A list of Advent Penance Services will soon appear in the bulletin.

May God bless you and your loved ones.

Sincerely in Christ, Fr. Greg

We are collecting non-perishable food items to assemble Christmas food baskets for local families in need. We could use Tuna, soups, crackers, pancake mix (Complete), syrup, mac & cheese, hamburger helper, canned vegetables, ketchup, mustard, mayo, 5# bags of sugar. We are good on paper products at this time.
