World Day of Prayer for Vocations

Today the Church throughout the world prays for vocations. Will you make a special effort to ask the Lord for vocations to the priesthood and religious life? Pray for the priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and dead. Encourage your children, grandchildren, or other young people to consider a vocation as a priest or religious brother or sister. Pray a rosary for more young men and women in our diocese to respond to God's call.

Stewardship Reflection

On this fourth Sunday of Easter, we hear that Jesus is the Good Shepherd and we are His sheep. In Jesus' time, a shepherd was someone who protected and guided his sheep. Jesus does this for us and so much more. He is the Shepherd that lays down His life for His sheep. This message calls us to reflect inward – do we allow Jesus to shepherd our lives?

We are Christ's, even more than a child is to a parent. He created us, brought us forth into the world, and sustains our lives each day. Evil persists in our world so Jesus willingly laid down His life for us at Calvary so that we might be saved. He is our Shepherd, whether we remain in His flock or go astray. Whether we accept His care, protection, and guidance or not, He is our Good Shepherd.

Let us look inward this week and ask ourselves, 'who is my Shepherd?' and 'have I gone astray?' Name the areas in your life that you have neglected and ask Jesus to bring you home. Pray for His mercy, seek His forgiveness in the sacraments and begin again. Remember that we are His and He is ready for us to come home, as He says, "I know mine, and mine know me."

Medical Mission

Reflections from Participants

"This mission trip was the product of many years of patience! I have felt called for a long time to go on a medical mission trip, and was ecstatic the Holy Spirit finally called me to Jamaica!

The therapy department had the honor of getting to know many incredible souls over the course of the week and provided a wide array of treatments from the head down to the foot. As a pelvic floor specialist state side, I was able to speak with some incredible women who have given birth to many children over their lifetimes, and due to the conditions in which they labor and recover was able to start a journey of healing they had never known. We were able to discuss various trauma they had not come to terms with and how that can relate to their current ailments.

One of my favorite women was a beautiful soul who from a young age had been exposed to a very volatile environment (i.e. gun shots around her home). She had various children and was struggling with pelvic pain. We talked about her trauma and relating to her physiological issues as well as working to "give to God" her burdens. She discussed how she enjoyed (when she could get a ride) going down to a local river and just dancing and praying in the water. We discussed how meeting God at the river as well as other solutions would be great drivers on her new journey. She was incredibly appreciative and wanted to spread the knowledge she gained with others suffering as she was. You could tell her shoulders lower and her head was held higher by the end.

Thank you all for your kind words of support and generous offerings that allowed this amazing interaction and many more to occur. You, nor we, will never know how many lives were touched that week and for years to come!"

Dr. Andrea Wilk

More stories and pictures from the trip will be posted on the St. Mary and St. Michael parish website and Facebook pages.

Looking for a way to become involved in a parish ministry?

We have a spot for you! Our parishes Funeral Mass Team is currently restructuring to support the Hollidaysburg Roman Catholic community upon the loss of a family member or loved one.

Many opportunities for adults of all ages. Support is needed to plan, shop for and prepare food for funeral luncheons; to outreach (call) to fellow parishioners for contributions of side dishes, salads or desserts on a per event basis; to help set up, serve and cleanup during meal events.

Come share your time and talents. This opportunity allows flexibility to match your busy daily schedule. You can make calls from home, drop off food contributions the day of the event or spend time with the core team members as they provide a few hours of comfort and fellowship with the families during the funeral meal. There is a role for everyone! A great opportunity for our young adults to complete community service hours or our retired members to interact with new people.

INTRODUCTION FOR TODAY'S READINGS

Fourth Sunday of Easter (Cycle B)

First Reading: Acts 4:8-12
 Early in the Acts of the Apostles, Peter and John healed a lame man who sat begging each day at the temple gate. This miracle led to their arrest, and they were brought t before the Sanhedrin. In today's passage, we hear Peter speaking boldly about Jesus to these Jewish leaders. In these few sentences, Peter presents the very heart of the Christian message.

Second Reading: 1 John 3: 1 -2
 During this Easter Season, we are reading from the first letter of John. Today's passage reminds us about something both John and Paul emphasized: Jesus has made it possible for us to be God's sons and daughters, not just in some future life, but here and now.

Next Sunday's Readings
 Acts of the Apostles 9:26-31 (53B); 1 John3:18-24
