Parishioner Registration: If you would like to join the parish, please contact either rectory/church office. Please remember to notify us if you move or will be moving out of the parish. Registration, the practice of stewardship, and regular participation in the Sacraments indicate that a person is an active member of the parish and is eligible to act as a godparent or sponsor. As a Church community seeking to be faith-filled disciples and good stewards, the sacrifice of our time, talent and treasure is essential for the common good.

Bulletin Deadline: The deadline to have information considered for publication in the bulletin is noon Tuesday prior to the weekend of the announcement. Send the information to gmollish@volunteerdaj.org. or either church office.

INTRODUCTION FOR TODAY'S READINGS

Fifth Sunday of Easter (Cycle B)

First Reading: Acts 9:26-31

Earlier in the book of Acts, we hear of Saul (later known as Paul) persecuting Christians in Jerusalem. When he went to Damascus to do more of the same, he experienced a dramatic conversion. It was several years before he returned to Jerusalem, the site of his earlier persecutions. His first visit to Jerusalem as a Christian is described in today's reading.

Second Reading: 1 John 3: 18-24

During this Easter Season, our second Scripture reading is from the first letter of John. In today's passage, the author is dealing with some members of the community who have defected. They seem to have believed that, as long as you have faith in Jesus, it doesn't matter what you do in daily life. The author directly refutes that position.

Next Sunday's Readings

Acts of the Apostles 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48 (56B)

1 John 4:7-10

Gospel John 15:9-17

Stewardship Reflection

Our readings today teach us what it means to bear fruit as disciples of Christ. We hear in each of our readings that it is from the Lord that good effects will be produced in our lives.

And Jesus clearly tells us how to do this in our Gospel, as He says, "I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing." We can remain in Christ by staying faithful to His commandments and frequently receiving the sacraments. And our day to day moments should be a reflection of those commitments.

Let us begin this week reflecting on these questions, 'how is God bearing fruit in my life?' and 'have I invited the Holy Spirit to work in my life?' Then let us consider the areas of our days that we can more fully invite the Lord into. May we strive to stay connected to the Vine.

Job Openings

The Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown has an opening for a full-time Director of Faith & Family Ministries to manage the execution of religious education, youth ministry, OCIA, Scouting and family life programs.

There is also an opening for a full-time Priest Care Coordinator to serve as an advocate and care manager for resident priests of St. Leonard's Retirement Home while managing day -to-day operations.

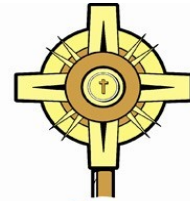

To view a full listing of responsibilities and qualifications, for either job, and to apply, please go to: www.dioceseaj.org/employment. Resumes may be emailed to lmcevoy@dioceseaj.org

Family Perspective

by Bud Ozar
 Like the vine grower in today's gospel, parents must "prune and cleanse" the branches in their family if their children are going to be rooted. Discipline, limits and setting goals are a necessary part of parenting so our children will grow and "bear fruit."

Medical Mission

Reflections from Participants

"The only word I can use to sum up my time in Maggotty, Jamaica and time spent at Holy Spirit Clinic/Parish is "eye-opening." This was my first time on a medical mission trip and first time out of the country. That alone was an adventure of seeing how other people live and how different their living conditions are from ours. But for anyone who has been to the resorts of Jamaica, the whole island is not like that. The roads were just barely wide enough for two cars to drive with winding roads and potholes galore. Houses are built but with only the first floor done and uncompleted second floors. There are multiple family members living in houses much smaller than ours. It allows you to become very grateful for what you have.

I wasn't sure what I would see there as a foot doctor. A lot of things that I see on a day to day basis are not "one time fix" problems or they require x-rays or additional treatments that aren't readily available down there. Several people I referred out to get imaging or referral to another clinic that has surgical services, but I have no way of knowing if the patient will actually follow through with it.

One encounter really resonated with me:

- Patient has a history of bilateral foot wounds and multiple toe amputations due to diabetes and vascular disease. He was telling me about what has been done, even that a doctor almost cut the whole foot off due to the severity of the infection. None of this comes as a surprise to me since he reminded me of patients that I see weekly in my office. I treated the wounds accordingly and provided some dressing supplies for him until he was able to return to the doctor he previously saw a few towns over. I felt bad there was nothing more I could do. These types of wounds can heal but take several weeks to months and typically require surgery or additional wound care products to get healed. When I was done, I offered to help put his socks back on over the dressings. He stopped me and shook my hand. "In all the years and all the doctors that have treated my feet, you are the first to ever put my socks back on."

There were several times during the trip that I honestly didn't feel like I was as helpful as the other parishioners that came. The eye clinic and PT clinic were busy all day long when I would have time to help reorganize drawers or restock the pharmacy. I was honestly humbled by that patient because something so simple can be the nicest gesture that person has had all day.

My long running joke is that Holy Thursday is a podiatrist's favorite holy day, but it really is a lesson of being humble and respectful for others. John 13:14-17. In the fact that this trip happened before Holy Week, I honestly felt like I was seeing Jesus in so many people that week.

Not everyone can go to another country to do mission work. I feel extremely blessed to have had this opportunity and the means with having two small kids at home. It was truly an experience I've never had before and will be excited to return some day. But everyday goodness and kindness can be done in our own backyard. You can make a change in someone's life in a meaningful way and be the face of Jesus for someone who might need to see Him a little bit more. Do to others as you would have them do to you (Luke 6:31)."

- Dr. Martha Klingbeil

Little Lamb's Liturgy

Children 2 to 5 years old

Are you a parent or caregiver of a young child? Are they sometimes a little squirmy in church? Is it sometimes a struggle to sit in church when their little bodies just want to move, but you still want them to be involved in the Mass?

Welcome to: Little Lamb's Liturgy!

Saint Michael Church is hosting a special children's liturgy during the 10:00 AM Mass:

May 5, 19 and June 2 & 16

We ask that at least one parent or guardian attend with their child.

The Prayer Shawl Ministry meets four times a month in the school at St. Michael parish.

They meet on the second and fourth Monday of each month at 5:00 PM and the second and fourth Wed. of each month at 11:30 AM.

The group knits and crochets prayer shawls, but also sews prayer shawls, lap blankets and baptismal garments.

As they are meeting four times a month, they are kindly asking for donations of yarn to make prayer shawls, baby blankets, and lap blankets.

Please contact: Sue: 814-693-9534 or Kathy: 814-312-7048

& May 8 & 22 at 11:30 AM

Looking for a way to become involved in a parish ministry?

We have a spot for you! Our parishes Funeral Mass Team is currently restructuring to support the Hollidaysburg Roman Catholic community upon the loss of a family member or loved one.

Many opportunities for adults of all ages. Support is needed to plan, shop for and prepare food for funeral luncheons; to outreach (call) to fellow parishioners for contributions of side dishes, salads or desserts on a per event basis; to help set up, serve and cleanup during meal events.

Come share your time and talents. This opportunity allows flexibility to match your busy daily schedule. You can make calls from home, drop off food contributions the day of the event or spend time with the core team members as they provide a few hours of comfort and fellowship with the families during the funeral meal. There is a role for everyone! A great opportunity for our young adults to complete community service hours or our retired members to interact with new people.

Interested parishioners can submit their name and contact information to either parish office, and/or attend the next team meeting scheduled for Monday, April 29th at 6:30 PM in the St. Mary Social hall meeting room.

Hear the Call

From the moment of your Baptism God has made a special plan for you. He sent His Son, Jesus into your heart to be with you as you make your spiritual journey through life. Jesus was baptized to show us the way to holiness and provide the knowledge that we are a child of God and play a part in His Church.
