

What's UP AT OGLEBAY

Oglebay
WHEELING, WV
COME. PLAY. STAY.
877-418-4923
465 Lodge Drive | Wheeling, WV 26003
f t g+ s

Dine & Ride for $45

February 28 • 5:30 pm
Enjoy a gourmet 3-course dinner at Ihlenfeld Dining Room and round trip trolley service to The Price Is Right Live at The Capitol Theatre for just $45 per person, plus taxes and fees! Hurry—space is limited to 30 guests per event. Call 304-243-7080 for reservations.

Friday Night Seafood Buffet

Every Friday through March 30 • 5 - 10 pm
Join us every Friday night in Ihlenfeld Dining Room for our weekly seafood buffet offering a smorgasbord of seafood favorites, prime rib, chicken piccata, salads, sides, desserts and more!

Junior Zookeeper Certification Program

February 24 & 25 • 11 am - 4 pm
In this FREE program, kids ages 5+ will complete educational activities to earn an official Junior Zookeeper certificate and lapel button. Plus, participants receive 15% OFF registration for any 2018 summer zoo camp!

Wine Down Wednesday at The West Spa

Every Wednesday • 5 - 8 pm
Wind down at The West Spa every Wednesday with a complimentary glass of wine and hors d'oeuvres to complement your spa service. Plus, receive 15% OFF retail items from the spa boutique!

Easter Treasure Hunt at the Good Zoo

March 30 & 31 • 10 am - 4 pm
The Easter Bunny returns for the annual Good Zoo Treasure Hunt. Kids receive a treasure map and a bucket to hold their goodies. Plus, they'll get the opportunity to meet the Easter Bunny!

7th Annual Wheeling Polka Festival

March 23 - 25
Join us for a toe tapping, three day polka festival featuring 12 time Grammy-nominated polka band Lenny Gomulka & Chicago Push, The NJ Tones, Ray Jay and The Carousels, and The John Gora Band & The Knievz.

Adventures in Mindfulness Retreat

April 27 - 29
Join us for a weekend-long mindfulness journey featuring acclaimed mindfulness experts Cory Muscara and David Creswell, who have garnered national attention through The Dr. Oz Show, The Today Show and more!

FOR FULL EVENT DETAILS,
VISIT WWW.OGLEBAY.COM

What Are the Health Benefits of Epsom Salt?

If you suffer from aches and pains, sore muscles or dry skin, there's a good chance you've tried at least one over-the-counter product made to treat these conditions. And if you're like most people, you've probably spent a decent amount of money and experienced some unpleasant side effects trying to find the right fix for your ailment.

The good news is you don't have to go broke or break out in hives in order to get relief. Your local drugstore has a safe and affordable home remedy you can try instead: Epsom salt.

What is Epsom salt?

Epsom salt is pure magnesium sulfate, which has several health benefits, such as relieving tension and stress, muscle pain, headaches and constipation, Indiana University Health cosmetic dermatologist Dr. Melanie Kingsley tells SheKnows. Named for a saline spring at Epsom in Surrey, England, Epsom salt is not actually salt, but a naturally occurring mineral compound of magnesium and sulfate. Epsom salt is most commonly added to a warm bath in order to reap the health benefits.

What's so great about bathing in Epsom salt?

Epsom salt baths have been used for years as a natural remedy to help ease achy muscles and reduce stress. If you've ever taken a bath with these salts, you know exactly how good it feels.

But why is the combination of Epsom salt and bath water so good for us? Board-certified dermatologist Dr. Anna Guanache explains that in bath water, Epsom salt separates into magnesium and sulfate, which relaxes achy muscles.

"Theoretically, the salt in the bath water may osmotically reduce swelling — although there are no studies to support this," says Guanache. The other theory, she explains, is that the magnesium is absorbed through the skin, which helps relieve achy muscles.

Registered nurse Rebecca Lee, who specializes in natural remedies for various health ailments, also believes that an Epsom salt bath is great for soothing aches and pains.

"Magnesium is a natural muscle relaxer, and in the salt form, it pulls excess water and lactic acid buildup away from the injured tissues and reduces swelling," explains Lee.

That's why people use Epsom salt after a hard workout and for sore and injured muscles. She says these baths are also used a lot to detoxify the skin and reduce inflammation and pain that stem from gout flare-ups.

Other benefits of using Epsom salt

Dr. Carolyn Dean, a health, diet and nutrition expert, says magnesium in the form of Epsom salt can calm nerves, reduce anxiety and help alleviate depression since magnesium facilitates the production of serotonin (the feel-good hormone). Epsom salt also increases energy, decreases headaches, treats insomnia and helps you have a deeper, quality sleep.

Caitlin Hoff, health and safety investigator for ConsumerSafety.org, says that in addition to relief from aches and pains, other benefits of Epsom salt include gentle exfoliation, sunburn relief and itching relief of bug bites. Plus, it's also recommended for people with arthritis or fibromyalgia.

If you're ready to experience the amazing benefits of this affordable and safe home remedy, check out a few of the tips the experts swear by.

Skin care expert and registered nurse Robin Hillary recommends using Epsom salt as an exfoliant for dry winter skin. She says it's best to use on your legs and arms (especially elbows). While in the shower, take a small handful of salt and rub it into wet skin. She suggests avoiding the face, but does recommend lightly massaging it into your neck and shoulders.

The best way to use Epsom salt is to dissolve it in water. Kingsley says the salt absorbs better into the skin this way.

Buying Epsom salt is easy and affordable. You can find it in most drugstores, health food stores, online and in grocery stores. It's typically sold in a large bag, and you can store it at room temperature in a cabinet. Make sure you seal it after each use since it makes a huge mess if it is spilled.

When taking an Epsom salt bath, make sure the water is very warm. Add the Epsom salt while the water is running. This helps it dissolve. Most bags come with directions, but usually, 1 to 2 cups per standard-size bathtub is recommended for treating the body.

BE PART OF A WINNING TEAM

CENTRAL NEWSPAPER FRANCHISE AVAILABLE

Full training and support.

With over 23 years of proven success and recognition in the industry. A Central Franchise Is a solid investment into your

NEW FUTURE START TODAY

We work with the latest technologies and techniques
Reasonable start up rates, full training and assistance.
FINANCING AVAILABLE. Unlimited income potential.

If you studied Journalism, Business, Psychology, Sociology
Or Just Looking To Start One Of The Most Rewarding Careers.
Great Opportunity for those undergoing a life change do to lay off or buy outs. Start your new career TODAY!

Email: newspaper@ocentral.com or call us

304-243-0780

